CLAIMS LEAGUE CONTROLLED BY RASCALS, CROOKS

Liberty League Is Assailed By Senator

By Edward J. Duffy,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, Jan. 23.—(AP)—A Democratic critic of the American Liberty League, controlled by "rascals and crooks," late today afforded a ringing rebuke to the league's director Alfred E. Smith will address Saturday.

In words that held many in the crowded Senate galleries breathless, Senator Schwellenbach (D-Wash.) said "leeches and bloodsuckers" surround Smith in the organization. Speculation whether the former New York governor is about to turn his back on the league, which he had helped to organize, has increased through the day.

"No man can successfully turn his back on a friend," Schwellenbach admonished emphatically. He recalled President Roosevelt's past support of Smith for the presidency.

In 1928, he said, the "Happy Warrior" requested Roosevelt to run for governor in New York, although "it involved risking the life of his very best friend."

Roosevelt ran and won but Smith lost the state to Herbert Hoover. The senator attacked particularly John J. Raskob, former Democratic chairman, and Pierre DuPont. Both participated with Smith in setting up the league a year and a half ago.

Schwellenbach declared his purpose was to discredit the league before the dinner by publishing "the character" of its leaders.

From a recent report to the House he read that $485,435.15 contributed to the league in 1935, came from the DuPonts, of Delaware, or persons closely allied, and from the General Motors Corporation.

Raskob and DuPont were charged with "looking to the future" on their 1935 income taxes. The "methods" as Schwellenbach said, of the "rascals and crooks" who were finally put in prison.

Processing Tax To Be Returned

New York, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Corn Products Refining Co., a leading producer of corn derivatives, today sent a notice to its customers that plans for a refunding of their due share of $9,000,000 processing taxes would be carried forward as rapidly as possible. It was the company's intention, the announcement said, promptly to compute the amount of taxes due the customers from refunds received and to pass them on "as fast as machinery can be set up for that purpose, unless some action by the government makes this impossible."

A refund to the company of $663,165 was authorized a few days ago under a decision handed down by the local U. S. district court.

AUTO DUEL

Denver, Jan. 23.—(AP)—A "duel with automobiles" was reported by police today.

Capt. William J. Armstrong said Theodore Bennett, 38, and Ora D. Nicholson, 36, were zig-zagging across a street, raining bumpers like goats locking horns. The two were booked for careless driving.

"Just a private quarrel," they explained.

Weather

For Jacksonville and vicinity—The weather predicts snow and rising temperature for today and tomorrow.

The U. S. Co-operative Weather Bureau at the National Weather Service last night gave temperatures as high 3 below, low 17 below and at sunset Wednesday, 5 below.

Barometer readings were: A. M. 30.25; P. M. 30.30.

Illinois—Snow Friday and Saturday; rising temperature.

Indiana—Increasing cloudiness followed by snow Friday afternoon or night, and on Saturday; rising temperature.

Wisconsin—Increasing cloudiness followed by snow Friday afternoon or night, and on Saturday; rising temperature.

Missouri—Increasing cloudiness followed by snow Friday afternoon or night, and on Saturday; rising temperature.

Smiles Tell Story of Senate Bonus Victory

Triumphant over the speed and extent of their victory, leaders of the fight for prepayment of the Soldiers' Bonus are pictured celebrating the passage of the bill by the Senate, 74 to 16. Left to right are Senator Phil McCarran of Nevada; Raymond Murphy, national commander of the American Legion; Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon; Colonel John T. Taylor, Legion legislative director; Senator James P. Byrnes of South Carolina; James Van Zandt, Veterans of Foreign Wars commander; J. K. Brooke, V. F. W. legislative director; M. A. Harlan, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans; and Senator Robert R. Reynolds.

Catastrophe Was Averted By RFC Loan To Bank

Government Agency Trying To Recover $14,000,000 From Stockholders

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The $20,000,000 Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan to the Central Republic Bank and Trust Company was described as a move to avert "a catastrophe of national importance" today as trial of the government agency's suit to recover $14,000,000 from approximately 1,000 stockholders opened in federal court.

Edward R. Johnston, chief of the 35 attorneys who have entered appearances in the case, said the old "dividend bank" declared in its opening statement.

"We are prepared to show that in June, 1932, there was an acute banking condition throughout the country. Depositors were frightened, there then 190 suburban banks in this region, many of them members of the Central Republic bank, had failed. Had the bank closed, with its 12,000 deposits and chain of small banks it would have been a catastrophe of national importance."

The loan was made for the purpose of helping the bank to meet its obligations. Johnston said the bank was really made for the financial welfare of the entire middle west and to protect the national credit.

Former Morgan Resident Dies At Peoria Home

L. E. Roach Passes Away Suddenly Thursday; Born In Waverly

Waverly, Jan. 23.—L. E. Roach, age 69 years, died suddenly this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at his home in Peoria, 106 Summer avenue. He had finished eating his supper, washed into the living room, and fell dead.

The deceased was born in Waverly and would have been 70 years old February 14. He has been in Peoria for the last twenty-three years.

Surviving are his wife formerly Miss Nell Flanagan of Waverly, and four children, Lawrence of Des Moines, Iowa; Osea of Atlantic, Iowa; Mrs. Florence Bear and Jenny of Peoria. There is also one brother, J. T. Roach of Jacksonville, and two sisters, Mrs. Nannie Whitlock of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Ida Carruthers of Waverly.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

There are eleven grandchildren.

ELIZABETH REYNOLDS PASSES AWAY HERE

Miss Elizabeth Reynolds passed away recently at the Jacksonville State hospital. She had been a resident of this city for more than 15 years.

Surviving are her brothers, J. E. Reynolds, Jacksonville, and W. O. Reynolds, Denver, Colo.

The remains were taken to Camp Point, Ill., for funeral services and burial.

WILL ATTEND FUNERAL

Doorn, The Netherlands, Jan. 23.—Prince Friedrich of Prussia, youngest son of former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm and a grandson of the late King George, will represent former Kaiser Wilhelm at the funeral next Tuesday. It was announced today.

Oral Hazewood of the Hillview Cannery was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

MRS. ISAAC POSTLEY DIES THURSDAY AT RESIDENCE HERE

Mrs. Katherine Postley, wife of Isaac Postley, passed away at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the home, 508 North West street. She was a native of the State of Virginia, but had lived in this city for a number of years.

Surviving are the husband and five children, Mrs. Cora Hunsley, Gabriel Postley, Mrs. Martha Turner, and Addie Postley of Jacksonville, and Ben Postley of Springfield. There are one brother and three sisters, Albert Allen, Ella Williams, and Mrs. Lizzie Jackson of LaGrange, Mo., and Mrs. Sarah Newman, Hopedale, Mo.

The deceased was a member of Mt. Emory Baptist church.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Gillham Funeral Home where funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. Mr. Walker and Rev. H. H. Brown. Burial will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Delbert Green Is Granted Reprieve By Gov. H. H. Blood

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Delbert Green, an accused triple killer and four-time sentenced to die, was granted a reprieve today until Feb. 1, pending his appeal for a full pardon.

Gov. Henry H. Blood's action, taken to grant the condemned man's constitutional rights, was his second in the six-year-old case.

A year ago the governor issued a similar order as the condemned man pleaded to fight the fifteen minutes provided by Utah law. He chose that punishment in preference to hanging, the only alternative, six years ago when he was sentenced for killing an uncle.

The continuation of the fight, won by his court-appointed attorneys that delayed his execution today, said Governor Blood.

"This reprieve is granted because an appeal is pending before the State Supreme Court involving the constitutional rights of the condemned man, Delbert Green."

In addition to the slayings of his uncle, James Green, the convict is accused of killing his young wife and his mother-in-law.

The reprieve was announced a few minutes after an unidentified woman had called the governor's office and asked permission to console Green in his cell at the state prison tonight. She was advised no consolation would be necessary since Green was to be reprieved.

Detroit Man Claims Raw Egg Eating Title

Detroit, Jan. 23.—(AP)—A champion has been crowned. The gastronomic feat of Marco Bonmartio, Detroit grocer, who recently claimed some sort of record when he consumed 61 raw eggs, drew the disdain today of Emile (Bud) Gillette, of Arcadia, Kansas. Gillette wrote the following letter to a newspaper here:

"I claim the raw egg eating championship. I read about this fellow in your city but I eat 36 eggs in 1 minute and 14 seconds and 51 eggs in three minutes and I can eat 75 eggs in five minutes. Once after eating 51 eggs I ate a 75-cent dinner and that was just a start. I can beat Mr. Bonmartio any time he feels like it."

Bonmartio said "that is pretty good. I don't know if I could beat it, but maybe I could if I was hungry."

L. L. Seeley of White Hall was among Thursday afternoon callers in Jacksonville.

Mayor Blocked In Efforts To Settle Strike

Union Men Fail To Attend Conference Called By Pekin Executive

Pekin, Ill., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Mayor W. E. Schurman was blocked today in his efforts to bring about a peaceful settlement of the strike which has closed the American Milling company plant here.

Union strikers, who are demanding recognition of seniority rights, failed to attend a conference with company officials which was called by the mayor.

Schurman said tonight that the union gave no reason for failure to be represented at the meeting.

At the same time nonunion workers held a mass meeting which was attended by city and county officials and business men. Spokesmen said the workers wanted to return to their jobs, and make a plea to officers to clear the pickets from entrances to the plant.

Sheriff Ralph Gear said that his office was capable of removing the picketers, but "I would like to have peace restored without force."

Gear said today that the maintenance men in the plant is being carried through the picket lines by his deputies.

Hi-Y Club Loses Officers At Meet

Hi-Y club for boys held an induction ceremony for new members last evening in the Congregational church parlors. The outgoing president, Phil Bastien, and other officers were in charge, receiving the following members: Dick Hartman, Gilbert Porter, Albert Scott, Lloyd Bourne, Bill Baldwin, Donald Oxley and Merrill Cline.

The meeting was then turned over to the new president, Dick Hartman. Reports were given by Henry Clark on the progress of the club's free throw tournament.

Refreshments were served following adjournment.

Thomas Courtney Gets Endorsement

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Endorsements that he might be "forgotten" by the Cook county Democratic central committee, State Attorney Thomas J. Courtney received an official endorsement today for re-nomination at the April primary.

The committee endorsed all other county office holders here. At his own request, County Treasurer Joseph Gill received the endorsement for municipal clerk clerk, Horace C. Lindheimer, his assistant, was endorsed for Gill's present job.

Stories that Courtney might have to run without the blessing of the Democratic organization were circulated after Governor Henry Horner's friend in politics, failed to receive an endorsement.

GRANTS INJUNCTION

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Federal Judge Charles E. Woodward today granted a preliminary injunction—believed to be the first issued in the United States—against enforcement of employee elections system set up in the Wagner labor relations act.

Saying he hesitated to pronounce a final opinion on the act's constitutionality, Judge Woodward added he had enough doubt of it to stay enforcement temporarily on application of Clayton Mark & Co., steel manufacturer.

DISCOVER SEVEN PERSONS SLAIN IN FARM HOUSE

Father Kills Family And Then Commits Suicide

Danville, Ill., Jan. 23.—(AP)—The seven members of the William A. Albers family were found shot and hanged to death today in a flaming farm home. A posse of Edgar county officials and residents who trekked to the snowbound house in 20 below zero weather made the gruesome discovery. A hasty reconstruction of the tragedy led them to believe Albers had killed his wife and five children in a desperate rampage a week or ten days ago and had lived in the grisly household until investigators approached today. They reasoned he then made pyres for each of his victims—mattresses soaked in kerosene—set them afire and slew himself.

Apparently the woman, four boys and a girl—all clad in night gowns—had been slain in their sleep.

Posse leaders asserted the belief John T. Wilford, 14, and Forrest, 10, had been beaten to death, a blood stained baseball bat was found in their room. Rifle bullets had ended the lives of Mrs. August Albers, 45, Gene, 4, Shirley Anne, 2, and Albers, 54. All had been shot through the head.

Albers body was entwined on the dining room floor. The others lay in their beds—the two oldest sons together—in various parts of the six room house.

It was the absence of John and Wilford from Sidell High school that led to the formation of the posse. Principal W. J. Goshorn and three other men traveled to the home, 25 miles southwest of Danville, six miles south of Sidell, through yesterday's blizzard. Albers opened the door a bare inch. Asked why the boys had not returned from Christmas vacation, he muttered:

"The whole family is quarantined in Champlain."

Getcham said Albers appeared "wild-eyed and haggard." The quarantined story could not be substantiated. So the investigating party backed back through the snow drifts today.

Albers raced into his house as they approached. He apparently saturated the bodies with coal oil, covered them with torn mattresses soaked in the same fuel and set the blazes. A shot was heard as officials broke in through boarded windows.

After gaining entrance the investigators stamped out the fires.

Heywood Patterson Convicted By Jury: Given 75 Years

Was First Of Nine Negroes
In Scottsboro Case To Face Retrial

Decatur, Ala., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Heywood Patterson, first of the nine negro defendants in the Scottsboro case to face retrial, was convicted today and sentenced to 75 years imprisonment.

Accused of attacking Mrs. Victoria Price, a white woman, aboard a freight train, approximately five years ago, Patterson, 30, was sentenced to death, but each time he won a new trial.

The jury that heard his case the fourth time deliberated eight hours, but the verdict which contained the recommendation of 75 years imprisonment was delayed while another panel was struck to try Clarence Norris, a second of the defendants, tomorrow on the same charge.

Mrs. Price, victim of the alleged attacks on March 25, 1931, said "it ain't fair" after the verdict.

Samuel S. Leibowitz of New York, chief of defense counsel, announced that an appeal from the verdict would be taken. Leibowitz said Patterson remarked of the verdict, "I had rather die than spend another day in jail for something I didn't do."

Formal sentence was deferred, and probably will not be passed until the trials now under way are completed. Trials of Charlie Weems and Andy Wright have been set for next week.

Preliminaries for Norris' trial were cleared this afternoon, and Mrs. Price was expected to take the stand as the first state witness to tell a jury for the ninth time her story of alleged events on the freight train in Jackson county.

DR. ALBERT OVENS DIES IN CANADA

Word has been received of the death of Dr. Albert N. Owens at the family home in Ontario, Canada.

Dr. Owens practiced osteopathy eleven years in Mason City, Ill., and about seventeen years in Springfield, Ill. In 1931 he suffered ill health which incapacitated him from further work in his profession. He received professional care and nursing at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. K. Hallock of this city over a period of six months, during which time he met and made a host of friends who will regret to learn of his passing.

Last fall he returned to the states for a short visit with friends in Springfield, Jacksonville and Virginia.

New Taxes to Finance Federal Payments to Farmers Are Proposed

By D. Harold Oliver

Washington, Jan. 23.—(AP)—New taxes to finance continued federal payments to farmers were definitely projected today as a fresh congressional storm sent the administration's AAA substitute bill to drydock for repairs.

Sharply conflicting reports over what happened at a secret meeting of Secretary Wallace with a senate agriculture subcommittee left in doubt the extent to which the bill—introduced only yesterday—will be amended.

Everyone agreed, however, that there would be immediate changes, including one suggested by Wallace to provide that subsidies after two years would be granted only in states which cooperate in a permanent program not yet worked out, but based on the idea of "little AAA's" in the 48 states.

As Wallace left the committee with instructions to prepare tentative amendments, Attorney General Cummings told his press conference that new tax legislation was "in process" of formation by the justice department and the treasury.

Asked if this would include retroactive reenactment of the invalidated AAA processing levies, Cummings said "you might, of course, take that as your conclusion."

Attempts to ascertain definitely what happened at the meeting of Wallace and Cummings, AAA administrator, with the senate group disclose a difference of opinion among senators on the conclusions reached.

Ethiopians And Italians Claim Thousands Slain

Both Sides Claiming Victory In Fierce Battle In Tembeian Area

(By The Associated Press)
Thousands slain in a savage battle in northern Ethiopia were reported Thursday in both Rome and Addis Ababa.

But each capital said the victims were the enemy their claims conflicting.

Rome, Jan. 23.—The Stefani (Italian) news agency said "several thousand" Ethiopians were killed in a battle in the Tembeian area of northern Ethiopia Tuesday.

A dispatch from Asmara to the agency said:

"A general engagement in the Tembeian extending to the whole northern front was engaged in Tuesday, resulting in complete success for the Italian army."

In several sectors our troops occupied new and important positions, repulsing counter-attacks by the enemy. The losses of the enemy amounted to several thousand men killed."

An official Italian communiqué today said "there have been sharp combats on the Eritrean front."

Addis Ababa, Jan. 23.—(AP)—An official Ethiopian communiqué said today "several thousand Italians have been killed" in a battle raging on the northern front since Monday.

Officials of the government said they believed the engagement took place west of Makale. "Important positions were occupied by the Ethiopians, and many cannons captured," asserted the communiqué.

"A tri-motored Italian plane was brought down by Dejaz Wodajo" (a graduate of France's St. Cyr Military College).

Reciprocal Trade Treaty Assailed

Washington, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The reciprocal trade agreement with Canada was assailed in the house today as a blow to the small cheese makers of Wisconsin and a boom to the manufacturers of processed cheese.

Representative Thomas Amle, Elkhorn, Wis., Progressive, placed before the house a letter written by him to Secretary Hull, which he said was prompted by President Roosevelt's reference to opponents of the trade agreement as "political racketeers and calamity howlers."

In a letter he told Hull that cheese makers of Green county, Wis., the Swiss cheese capital of the United States, felt their industry had been "seriously jeopardized" by the treaty.

Dr. Rowe wires message after learning returns.

Dr. Edward Rowe, who is spending the winter in New Orleans, was advised of the outcome of the municipal light plant election in a telegram Tuesday night by J. P. Claus.

Dr. Rowe sent a return message which said: "Message received. Thanks. People are to be congratulated."

DAUGHTER BORN TO FORMER RESIDENTS
Relatives here have received word of the birth of daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Irving of Gary, Ind. Mrs. Irving was formerly Miss Dorita Rasmussen of Beardstown.

COLD WAVE HAS BROUGHT DEATH TO 82 PERSONS

Temperatures Below Zero Remain In Many Areas

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(AP)—New York and the New England states bore the brunt of the latest assault of winter tonight.

While sub-zero temperatures remained in many areas of the middle west, the weather bureau promised warmer weather and snow tomorrow for Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Four died in New York City as the mercury retreated to 2 below and threatened to go lower. In Ohio, fatalities caused by the cold rose to 18, and the national count was at least 82.

As New York experienced its coldest Jan. 23 in its history, Boston was preparing for 10 below during the night.

The sub-zero temperatures ranged from minus 56 on the bridge over the Rainy river between International Falls, Minn., and Port Frances, Ont., for the second successive day coldest spot on the weather map and one degree more frigid than yesterday—to New York's 2 below.

In the Arctic belt's 25 to 52 degrees below range were Minnesota, Wisconsin, and parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Parts of New York state, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, eastern Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas saw readings of 10 to 20 below zero.

Wings of the cold wave penetrated the southland bringing threats of damage to Florida's citrus fruits with a low of 27 forecast during the night and scattering snow flurries over Tennessee. Nashville's zero minimum marked the coldest day for that southern city in over five years.

The deaths by states included: Illinois 12; Ohio 18; Michigan 11; Minnesota 4; New York 8; Indiana 14; Pennsylvania 6; Wisconsin 4; Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, South Dakota, Tennessee and North Dakota, 1 each.

Meteorologically There's Nothing Much In Names

Hell Is Frozen Over While Inhabitants Of Paradise, Mo., Shiver

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Meteorologically speaking there's nothing much in names, or is there?

While all of Hell, Mich., was frozen over today, Paradise, Ky., a tiny village of 300 was enjoying moderating temperatures, and the Green river on which the place is situated was unfrozen.

By way of contrast, Paradise, Mo., and its 200 inhabitants shivered and shook in sub-zero mercury readings.

"Some," said Mrs. Addie Lutz, the town's telephone operator, "say it got to 8, 9, 10 or even 20 below."

Devils Lake, N. D., came through with a 30 below report. Belle Kishner in Ohio was frozen up, while Satan's Kingdom in Connecticut watched the thermometer sag to 6 below.

Coldest water, however, there's nothing in names, except the zero wave, reporting warm weather.

This report had no more than trickled in over the telephone wires when Frostburg, Md., let the world know it was living up to its name, with 15 below and the high school students enjoying a holiday because the school's heating plant failed to work.

It was getting warm in Cool, Iowa, where the five families reported. They said it was 15 below there today, which was decidedly "warmer" than it was Wednesday, when it was 32.

Heaters, West Virginia, got into the weather hodgepodge with a 14 below reading and ten inches of snow.

SEND OUT S. O. S. CALL FOR COAL AND GET IT

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Newman, Ill., sent out an "S. O. S." call for coal by wireless—and got it.

So many people were telephoning for coal Wednesday that a Newman dealer couldn't get a long distance call through to a (Peabody) coal company at Springfield.

The order was broadcast by a short wave radio and picked up by Don Myers at the State Fair grounds, who finally reached the coal company by telephone. The cartload of coal was hurried to Newman.

ISSUES WARNING

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 23.—(AP)—In subzero weather, beware of pneumonia and carbon monoxide gas. Dr. Frank J. Jirka, state health director, warned today.

Exposure to extremely low temperatures and poorly ventilated rooms greatly favor the onset of pneumonia, he explained.

Asphyxiation from carbon monoxide may result, he said, from defective gas stoves and heaters, charcoal burners and even coal heaters where ventilation is poor, as well as from operating motor car engines in closed garages.

By Edward J. Duffy.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, Jan. 23.—(P)—A Democratic castigation of the American Liberty League as controlled by "rascals and crooks" late today afforded a rousing prelude to the league's dinner Alfred E. Smith will address Saturday.

In words that held many in the crowded Senate galleries breathless, Senator Schwelbensch (D-Wash.) said "leeches and bloodsuckers" surround Smith in the organization.

Speculation whether the former New York governor is about to burn his bridges behind him in opposition to the New Deal had increased through the day.

"No man can successfully turn his back on a friend," Schwelbensch admonished caustically. He recalled President Roosevelt's past support of Smith for the presidency.

Schwelbensch's declared purpose was to discredit the league before the dinner by publicizing "the character" of its backers.

From a recent report to the House he read that $270,584 of $483,175 contributed to the league in 1935 came from the Duponts of Delaware or persons closely allied, and from the General Motors Corporation.

Raskob and DuPont, he charged, with seeking "to defraud" on their 1935 income taxes by methods as subtle as "that of the racketeers of the big cities who were finally put in prison."

Catastrophe Was Averted By RFC Loan To Bank

Government Agency Trying
To Recover $14,000,000
From Stockholders

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—The $80,000,000 Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan to the Central Republic Bank and Trust Company was described as a move to avert "a catastrophe of national importance" today.

The bank, which had failed, had approximately $14,000,000 from approximately 4,000 stockholders opened in federal court.

Edward R. Johnston, chief of the 200 attorneys who have entered appearances in the case revolving about the old "Daves bank," declared in his opening statement:

"We are prepared to show that in June, 1932, there was an acute banking condition throughout the country. Depositors were frightened. More than 190 suburban banks in this region many of them depositors of the Central Republic, had failed. Had the bank closed with its 122,000 deposits and chain of small banks it would have been a catastrophe of national importance."

He quoted from a speech by former President Herbert Hoover to support his argument that conditions were serious and contended that the defendants should not be held liable for action designed to stave off a nationwide crisis. He added:

"The loan was really made for the financial welfare of the entire middle west and to protect the national credit."

MRS. ISAAC POSTLEY DIES THURSDAY AT RESIDENCE HERE

Mrs. Katherine Postley, wife of Isaac Postley, passed away at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the home, 308 North West street. She was a native of the State of Virginia, but had lived in this city for a number of years.

Surviving are the husband and five children: Mrs. Cora Huntley, Gabriel Postley, Mrs. Martha Turner, and Addie Postley of Jacksonville, and Ben Postley of Springfield. There are one brother and three sisters, Albert Allen, Mrs. Ella Williams, and Mrs. Lurie Jackson of LaGrange, Mo., and Mrs. Sarah Newman, Honeywell, Mo.

The decedent was a member of Mt. Emory Baptist church.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Gillham Funeral Home where funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. Mr. Walker and Rev. H. H. Dewitt. Burial will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Delbert Green Is Granted Reprieve By Gov. H. H. Blood

Condemned Man Is Saved From Firing Squad By Executive

Salt Lake City, Jan. 23.—(P)—Delbert Green, an accused triple killer and four times sentenced to die, was granted a reprieve today until Feb. 15—saving him from execution at dawn tomorrow by a firing squad.

Gov. Henry H. Blood's action, taken to guard the condemned man's constitutional rights, was his second in the six year old case.

A year ago the governor issued a similar order as the condemned man appeared to face the five riflemen provided by Utah law. He chose that punishment in preference to hanging, the only alternative, six years ago when he was convicted for killing an uncle.

It was a continuation of the fight waged by his court-appointed attorneys that stayed his execution today, said Governor Blood.

"This reprieve is granted because an appeal is pending before the State Supreme Court involving the constitutional rights of the condemned man, Delbert Green."

In addition to the slayings of his uncle, James Green, the convict is accused of killing his young wife and his mother-in-law.

The reprieve was announced a few minutes after an unidentified woman had called the governor's office and asked permission to console Green in his cell at the state prison tonight. She was advised no consolation would be necessary since Green was to be reprieved.

Detroit Man Claims Raw Egg Eating Title

Detroit, Jan. 23.—(P)—A champion has been crowned.

The gastronomic feat of Marco Bonmarito, Detroit grocer, who recently claimed some sort of record when he consumed 51 raw eggs, drew the disdain of Edna (Belle) Gillette, of Arcadia, Kansas. Gillette wrote the following letter to a newspaper here:

"I claim the raw egg eating championship. I read about this fellow in your city but I eat 36 eggs in 1 minute and 14 seconds and 51 eggs in three minutes. And I can eat 75 eggs in five minutes. Once after eating 51 eggs I ate a 75 cent dinner and that was just a start. I can beat Mr. Bonmarito any time he feels like it."

Bonmarito said "that is pretty good. I don't know if I could beat it, but maybe I could if I was hungry."

L. L. Seeley of White Hall was among Thursday afternoon callers in Jacksonville.

Mayor Blocked In Efforts To Settle Strike

Union Men Fail To Attend Conference Called By Pekin Executive

Pekin, Ill., Jan. 23.—(P)—Mayor W. E. Schurman was blocked today in his efforts to bring about a peaceful settlement of the strike which has closed the American Distilling company plant here.

Union strikers, who are demanding recognition of seniority rights, failed to attend a conference with company officials which was called by the mayor.

Schurman said tonight that the union gave no reason for failure to be represented at the meeting.

At the same time nonunion workers held a mass meeting which was attended by city and county officials and business men. Spokesmen said the workers wanted to return to their jobs, and made a plea to officers to clear the pickets from entrances to the plant.

Sheriff Ralph Goar said that his office was capable of removing the picketing strikers, but "I would like to have peace restored without force." Goar said food for the maintenance men in the plant is being carried through the picket lines by his deputies.

The plant normally employs about 1,200 persons, but recently the number had dropped to 70.

Hi-Y Club Lost Officers At Meet

Dick Hartman President Of Organization; Program Held Thursday

Hi-Y club for boys held an induction ceremony for new members last evening in the Congregational church parlors. The outgoing president, Phil Barten, and other officers were in charge, receiving the following members: Dick Hartman, Gilbert Porter, Albert Scoy, Lloyd Bourne, Bill Baldwin, Donald Ovelay and Merrill Cline.

The meeting was then turned over to the new president, Dick Hartman. Reports were given by Henry Clark on the progress of the club's free throw tournament.

Refreshments were served following adjournment.

Thomas Courtney Gets Endorsement

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Ending reports that he might be "forgotten" by the Cook county Democratic central committee, State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney received an official endorsement today for re-nomination at the April primary.

The committee endorsed all other county office holders here. At his own request, County Treasurer Joseph Gill received the endorsement for municipal court clerk. Horace G. Lindheimer, his assistant, was endorsed for Gill's present job.

Stories that Courtney might have to run without the blessing of the Democratic organization were circulated after Governor Henry Horner, his friend in politics, failed to receive an endorsement.

GRANTS INJUNCTION

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Federal Judge Charles E. Woodward today granted a preliminary injunction—believed to be the first issued in the United States—against enforcement of employee elections system set up in the Wagner labor relations act.

DISCOVER SEVEN PERSONS SLAIN IN FARM HOUSE

Father Kills Family
And Then Commits Suicide

Danville, Ill., Jan. 23.—(P)—The seven members of the William A. Albers family were found shot and bludgeoned to death today in a flaming farm home. A posse of Edgar county officials and residents who trekked to the snowbound house in 20 below zero weather made the gruesome discovery.

A hasty reconstruction of the tragedy led them to believe Albers had killed his wife and five children, in a desperate rampage a week or ten days ago and had lived in the grisly household until investigators approached today. They reasoned he then made pyres for each of his victims—mattresses soaked in kerosene—set them afire and slew himself.

Apparently the woman, four boys and a girl—all clad in night gowns—had been slain in their sleep.

Posse leaders asserted the belief John, 17, Wilford, 14, and Forrest, 10, had been beaten to death, a blood stained baseball bat was found in their lives. Rifle bullets had ended the lives of Mrs. August Albers, 45, Gene, 4, Shirley Anne, 2, and Albert, 54. All had been shot through the head.

Albers body was sprawled on the dining room floor. The others lay in their beds—the two oldest sons together—in various parts of the six room house.

It was the absence of John and Wilford from Sidell High school that led to the formation of the posse. Principal W. J. Goreham and three other men travelled to the home 25 miles southwest of Danville and six miles south of Sidell through yesterday's blizzard. Albers opened the door a bare inch. Asked why the boys had not returned from Christmas vacation, he muttered:

"The whole family is quarantined in Champaign."

Goreham said Albers appeared "wild-eyed and haggard." The quarantine story could not be substantiated. So the investigating party bucked back through the snow drifts today.

Albers raced into his house as they approached. He apparently saturated the bodies with coal oil, covered them with torn mattresses soaked in the same fuel and set the blaze. A shot was heard as officials broke in through boarded windows.

After gaining entrance the investigators stamped out the fires.

Was First Of Nine Negroes In Scottsboro Case To Face Retrial

Decatur, Ala., Jan. 23.—(P)—Heywood Patterson, first of the nine negro defendants in the Scottsboro case to face retrial, was convicted today and sentenced to 75 years imprisonment.

Accused of attacking Mrs. Victoria Price, a white woman, aboard a freight train approximately five years ago, Patterson thrice had heard himself sentenced to death, but each time he won a new trial.

The jury that heard his case the fourth time deliberated eight hours, but the verdict which contained the recommendation of 75 years imprisonment was delayed while another panel was struck to try Clarence Norris, a second of the defendants, tomorrow on the same charge.

Mrs. Price, victim of the alleged attacks on March 25, 1931, said "it ain't fair," after the verdict.

Samuel S. Leibowitz of New York, chief of defense counsel, announced that an appeal from the verdict would be taken. Leibowitz said Patterson remarked of the verdict, "I had rather die than spend another day in jail for something I didn't do."

Formal sentence was deferred, and probably will not be passed until the trials now under way are completed. Trials of Charlie Weems and Andy Wright have been set for next week.

Preliminaries for Norris' trial were cleared this afternoon, and Mrs. Price was expected to take the stand as the first state witness to tell a jury for the ninth time her story of alleged events on the freight train in Jackson county.

DR. ALBERT OVENS DIES IN CANADA

Word has been received of the death of Dr. Albert N. Ovens at the family home in Ontario, Canada.

Dr. Ovens practiced osteopathy eleven years in Mason City, Ill., and about seventeen years in Springfield, Ill. In 1931 he suffered ill health which incapacitated him from further work in his profession. He received professional cure and nursing at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. K. Hallock of this city, over a period of six months, during which time he met and made a host of friends who will regret to learn of his passing.

Last fall he returned to the states for a short visit with friends in Springfield, Jacksonville and Virginia.

By D. Harold Oliver
Washington, Jan. 23.—(P)—New taxes to finance continued federal payments to farmers were definitely projected today as a fresh congressional storm sent the administration's AAA substitute bill to drydock for repairs.

Sharply conflicting reports over what happened at a secret meeting of Secretary Wallace with a senate agriculture subcommittee left in doubt the extent to which the bill—introduced only yesterday—will be amended.

Everyone agreed, however, that there would be immediate changes, including one suggested by Wallace to provide that subsidies after two years would be granted only in states which cooperate in a permanent program not yet worked out, but based on the idea of "little AAA's" in the 48 states.

As Wallace left the committee with instructions to prepare tentative amendments, Attorney General Cummings told his press conference that new tax legislation was "in process" of formation by the justice department and the treasury.

Asked if this would include retroactive reenactment of the invalidated AAA processing levies, Cummings said "you might, of course, take that as your conclusion."

Attempts to ascertain definitely what happened at the meeting of Wallace and Chester Davis, AAA administrator, with the senate group disclose a difference of opinion among senators on the conclusions reached.

As now drawn the measure would permit subsidies based upon (1) acreage of soil improving or erosion-preventing crops, (2) acreage of crop land, (3) changes in the use of land, and (4) a percentage of a farmer's normal production of any one or more agricultural commodities designated by the secretary which equals the percentage of the normal national production required for domestic consumption.

Senator Bankhead (D. Ala.) a member of the subcommittee who introduced the bill said that aside from the state-aid amendment advanced by Wallace to form a framework for a permanent law, the only changes the secretary was asked to make were clarifying.

Disagreeing with Bankhead, Senator Murphy (D. Ia.) another subcommittee member, went so far as to say Secretary Wallace stated opposition to the principle of the bill which would grant him the broadest kind of powers to pay out treasury funds to farmers for conserving their soil and limiting crop production for domestic consumption.

Other subcommittee members differed with Murphy on this point, saying that Wallace did not oppose the bill.

Murphy indicated some of the alleged "Czaristic" powers given the secretary in the bill would be clipped and the two-year legislation confined more or less to grants only to help soil improvement.

As now drawn the measure would permit subsidies based upon (1) acreage of soil improving or erosion-preventing crops, (2) acreage of crop land, (3) changes in the use of land, and (4) a percentage of a farmer's normal production of any one or more agricultural commodities designated by the secretary which equals the percentage of the normal national production required for domestic consumption.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 23.—(P)—Fire swept through three tiny villages in upstate New York tonight, virtually destroying them, as residents, cut off from adequate outside aid by one of the worst blizzards since the famous storm of '88, fought valiantly to check the flames.

All three hamlets were isolated by almost impassable snow-drifts. A northwest gale spread the flames and sub-zero temperatures added to the hardships of the storm, which so far has claimed six lives.

The communities are: Bombay, in Franklin county, near the Canadian border; Hammond, in St. Lawrence county; Verona Station, near Rome in Oneida county.

Six families were made homeless in 14 below zero temperature at Bombay. Two grocery stores, a barber shop and a home were destroyed and a second house was damaged considerably.

The church and town hall were menaced by the flames, which were shackled at that point by a Massena fire department pumper. The equipment battled drifts five feet deep to reach the fire, which caused damage estimated unofficially at $25,000.

Three stores in the business section of Hammond were razed by a fire of undetermined origin. The blaze eventually was brought under control, newspaper reports indicated. No estimate of the damage was available.

At Verona station, fire caused, it was reported, by an overheated chimney, destroyed the feed mill of J. A. Frost and a large coal shed adjoining it, and spread to the New York Central station, which also houses the postoffice. The latter building was saved by the Verona fire department, which required an hour to travel a mile through four-foot drifts.

Reciprocal Trade Treaty Assailed

Washington, Jan. 23.—(P)—The reciprocal trade agreement with Canada was assailed in the house today as a blow to the small cheese makers of Wisconsin and a boom to the manufacturers of processed cheese.

Representative Thomas Amle, Elkhorn, Wis., Progressive, placed before the house a letter written by him to Secretary Hull, which he said was prompted by President Roosevelt's reference to opponents of the trade agreement as "political racketeers and calamity howlers."

In a letter he told Hull that cheese makers of Green county, Wis., "the Swiss cheese capital of the United States" felt their industry had been "seriously jeopardized" by the treaty.

Dr. Edward Bove, who is spending the winter in New Orleans, was advised of the outcome of the municipal light plant election in a telegram Tuesday night by J. F. Claus.

Dr. Bove sent a return message which said: "Message received. Thanks. People are to be congratulated."

COLD WAVE HAS BROUGHT DEATH TO 82 PERSONS

Temperatures Below
Zero Remain In Many Areas

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—New York and the New England states bore the brunt of the latest assault of winter tonight.

While sub-zero temperatures remained in many areas of the middle west, the weather bureau promised warmer weather and snow tomorrow for Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Four died in New York City as the mercury retreated to 2 below and threatened to go lower. In Ohio, fatalities caused by the cold rose to 18 and the national count was at least 82.

As New York experienced its coldest in 10 years, Boston was preparing for 10 below during the night.

The sub-zero temperatures ranged from minus 56 on the bridge over the Raisin river between International Falls, Minn., and Port Frances, Ont.—for the second successive day coldest spot on the weather map and one degree more frigid than yesterday—to New York's 2 below.

In the Arctic belt's 25 to 32 degrees below range were Minnesota, Wisconsin, and parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Parts of New York state, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, eastern Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas saw readings of 10 to 20 under zero.

Wings of the cold wave penetrated the southland bringing threats of damage to Florida's citrus fruits with a low of 27 forecast during the night and scattering snow flurries over Tennessee. Nashville's zero minimum marked the coldest day for that southern city in over five years.

The deaths by states included: Illinois 12; Ohio 18; Michigan 11; Minnesota 4; New York 8; Indiana 14; Pennsylvania 6; Wisconsin 4; Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, South Dakota, Tennessee and North Dakota, 1 each.

WALTER WOODSON'S DEATH OCCURS AT RESIDENCE HERE

Walter Woodson, resident of Jacksonville for 40 years, died at 10:25 o'clock last night at his home, 502 South Fayette street. He was a plasterer by occupation.

The decedent was born in Pike county, Missouri, August 6, 1883, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woodson. He was united in marriage with Ida Carter in 1930.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Dorothy Woodson, and three stepchildren, Elizabeth Gray, Eugene Gray and William Turner of Columbia, Mo. There are two brothers, Irv Woodson, Columbia, Mo., and Henry Woodson, Springfield.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Gillham Funeral Home. Services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Gillham Funeral Home, Ray Stoner officiating. Burial will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

HEAT WAVE

Buenos Aires, Jan. 23.—(P)—Residents of Buenos Aires, after sweltering much of the day, were rescued from the heat by a sudden shower early tonight.

The thermometer reached 94 degrees at 4 p. m. but fell to 69 under the cooling rain.

Actions and Words

A cartoonist in a metropolitan daily has drawn a rather accurate picture of the present political situation in government. A figure with outstretched hands holds two large baskets into which federal money is showering. From his wide-open mouth comes the cry of "State Rights." The hands of Esau and the voice of Jacob is the significant title beneath the cartoon.

In other words, the actions of the people is grabbing every crumb that falls from the table at Washington speaks louder than their verbal protests when the government, striving for money and power to meet the public demand, oversteps the Constitution and the rights of the sovereign states.

Those who clamor for federal money must remember that the bills must eventually be paid. New taxes must be levied from Washington. If the money is to be spent, the states that get it must bow to the demands of the federal holders of the purse strings. Illinois has had to drain to the dregs the cup of submission to federal dictation, and the end is not yet.

Because Washington does not like local government in the matter of old age pensions, the state House of Representatives insists that county administrative boards shall be appointed at Springfield. The one branch of the Assembly which ought to be most representative of the will of the people leans farthest toward Washington.

In all the nation the voice of Jacob shouts for state rights, but the hands of Esau reach for the mess of pottage being cooked up in the national capital. Esau parted with his birthright and came to himself when it was too late to break the bargain. Will the American people make the same mistake?

Cold Weather Phenomena

The low temperatures of the past two days have given rise to many stories of queer happenings on account of the unusual conditions. We will not vouch for the truth of any of these stories, as the weather has been too severe to allow us to make adequate investigations, but we are repeating them for what they were worth, following out the old adage that "you need not believe everything you hear, but you can repeat it."

First comes the story of the dairyman who set his barn on fire when he built a blaze under one of his cows to keep her from giving ice cream. The flames froze in the air and neighbors who came to help put out the fire cut them off with axes and threw them on the ice in a nearby pond. When the flames melted they changed the pond into a fine boiling spring, and the dairyman sold his milk business and established a health resort.

Then there's the story of the farmer who went to feed his hogs and was astonished to hear no responsive squeals when he shoveled out the corn. It was terribly cold and the hogs were hungry; they ate all right, but silently. The cold weather continued, and the farmer sold the hogs. The buyer was also astonished for ever had he loaded and shipped hogs that did not squeal.

A Strange Tragedy

Rush Holt, junior Senator from West Virginia, has expressed himself as ashamed of a condition which is being brought to light before the Labor committee of the House of Representatives. Senator Holt favors a complete federal investigation of deaths in his state said to be due to silicosis contracted by workers in a tunnel near Gauley Bridge, W. Va. The work was done more than two years ago. Nearly two thousand men were employed in the tunnel. Since then 476 of these men have died, and 1,500 are reported victims of silicosis and facing early death.

It is contended that the contractors did not use proper ventilation in the tunnel, and that the men were compelled to breathe dust from silicate rocks. Judging by the news accounts the entire affair will get a thorough

Centralization of Power Leads to Ruin

The preservation of home rule by the states is not a cry of jealous commonwealths seeking their own aggrandizement at the expense of sister states. It is a fundamental necessity if we are to remain a united country. The doctrine of regulation and legislation by "master minds," in whose judgment and will all the people may gladly and quietly acquiesce, has been too glaringly apparent in Washington during these last ten years. Were it possible to find "master minds" so unselfish, so willing to decide unhesitatingly against their own personal interests or private prejudices, men almost godlike in their ability to hold the scales of justice with an even hand—such a government might be to the interests of the country, but there are none such on our political horizon, and we cannot expect a complete reversal of the teachings of history.

Now, to bring about government by oligarchy masquerading as democracy, it is fundamentally essential that practically all authority and control be centralized in our national government. The individual sovereignty of our states must first be destroyed, except in mere minor matters of legislation. We are safe from the danger of any such departure from the principles upon which this country was founded just so long as the individual home rule of the states is scrupulously preserved and fought for whenever it seems in danger.

Written by Franklin D. Roosevelt while governor of New York.

Justice For Sea Victims

Representative W. L. Sirovich of New York is pressing for new federal legislation which would make more plain and inescapable the financial responsibility of a steamship company toward its passengers.

At the last session of Congress, Representative Sirovich put through a much-needed bill providing that the owners of a vessel are presumed to be aware of her unseaworthiness if such knowledge is possessed by the vessel's captains or by the owners' managing agents.

Now he seeks to dip away with a dodge by which tickets sold to passengers bear a limitation of the amount of damages for which the owners will be liable in case of a sea disaster.

Most passengers fail to notice this limitation when they buy their tickets, and could not do anything about it if they did notice it; as a result, they bind themselves in advance as far as the recovery of damages is concerned.

Last year's law was a good one; the new one is equally good. The Morro Castle and Mohawk disasters are not so far in the past that their lessons can be forgotten.

BARBS

In recent weeks, the nation has learned that music goes 'round and 'round, but that Joe Louis' opponents hardly average that many.

One thing about those hospital bombings, the Ethiopian under ether at the time can afterward boast about his embroidery pattern incision.

Dora grasps the idea of the housing fund, but that stabilization fund has her puzzled. She didn't know there were that many homeless horses.

If this Ethiopian mud is what they say it is, the Dutch who took Holland may have a rival in the Italians who took Eritrea.

There may be an explanation for this growing recklessness on the highway. A young Townsend enthusiast will tell you there's nothing like it for aging one.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Racketeers Already Burrowing in on Government's Social Security Program ... Sell "Approved" Accounting Systems Which Are Not Required of Employers ... Affiliation of Workers With Unions Ferreted Out With Bogus Questionnaires.

By RODNEY DUTCHER (Journal-Courier Washington Correspondent)

Washington—Although the national social security program calls for no tax collections until next year, racketeers are starting early. Both employers and employees already are being victimized through misrepresentations of its requirements.

One racket is the persuasion of employers that reports required from them are so complicated and difficult as to call for installation of special accounting systems—and even for special business machines.

Some agents are selling systems of accounting alleged to be "approved" by the Social Security Board, whereas there actually aren't any special authorized or approved systems.

At social security headquarters it is insisted that no more accounting is required for federal unemployment tax records than the ordinary employer goes through in compiling his payroll. The facts required are chiefly the number of employees, names, amount of money paid, and when employees worked.

Old age benefit reports will require little more information, chiefly as to ages of individuals.

Reports have been received of employers who are deducting from pay envelopes to meet expenses they themselves are expected to pay and of others who intend to pay no taxes for factory workers engaged on piece-work.

Tricked by Questionnaire

From Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Illinois have come copies of questionnaires distributed to employees which appear to seek information helpful in thwarting union activities. They are believed to have been distributed by a manufacturers' organization or strike-breaking agency.

A typical questionnaire, issued by the company, demands answers to 32 questions, whereas the SSB regulations would require the employee to answer but one: age. It says:

"The questionnaire is to be accurately filled in by every employee for government records. Any information given incorrectly might in many ways make such person ineligible to receive benefits to which he should be entitled. . . . The labor union membership . . . is supposed to be answered for government purposes only."

All of which is false. The questionnaire then proceeds to ask if the employee is a union member and, if so, of what union; address, telephone number, religion, ownership or rental of home, and many other personal details.

The SSB says it hasn't asked employers for any information concerning individual employees. It has set up an information service to answer all questions of employers and employees in case of doubt as to such requirements.

Nine Justices Agree!

This will be news to you, but the U. S. Supreme Court suddenly seemed to be unanimous on an issue the other day.

The case was that of three Mississippi Negroes named Ed Brown, Henry Shields, and Frank Ellington, who contend they shouldn't be hanged on the basis of a false murder confession obtained by torture.

The torture is admitted. But the Mississippi supreme court refused to interfere, because the defendants' lawyers hadn't objected in the proper ways at the proper time.

One by one, the nine justices leaped—often in indignation—upon the unhappy lawyers representing the state in opposition to the appeal. Justice Roberts, author of vigorous anti-New Deal opinions, seemed especially angry.

During discussion of the trial judge's instructions to the jury concerning the torture evidence, Justice Van Devanter suddenly and heatedly demanded: "Do you mean to infer here that that's a good instruction? Well, I'll tell you why it's not."

"Well, now, just a minute!" interrupted Chief Justice Hughes as state counsel said nothing could be done about it when defense counsel refused to take advantage of its rights in time.

"You admit the original confessions were obtained by torture and that they were the only evidence. You are arguing . . . that this is not a denial of due process of law. That's your case, isn't it?"

The court ignored Mississippi's proffered points. After its unique demonstration of unanimous feeling, former Governor Brewer of Mississippi, appearing for the Negroes, felt quite confident.

French Senate and Deputies Leaders Reject New Posts

Refuse to Attempt to Form New Cabinet to Replace Laval's Unit

Paris—(AP)—France's governmental crisis tightened today as the first leaders to be offered the premiership refused to step into the uncomfortable shoes of Pierre Laval. The financial situation also began to reflect the uncertainty.

The traditions surrounding the rise and fall of French cabinets brought the first offers of the premiership to Jules Jeanneney, president of the senate, and Fernand Bouisson, president of the chamber of deputies.

Jeanneney's refusal had been a foregone conclusion, and Bouisson likewise declined, in a two-hour conference with President Albert Lebrun, to attempt to form a cabinet after

Judge Samuel on G.O.P. Committee To Pick Candidate

Five from House and Senate Appointed to Join in Party Conference

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Downstate Republican members of the legislature were embarked yesterday on a search for a downstate candidate for governor with qualifications they deem necessary to end party factionalism.

The plan was advanced Wednesday night at a conference of Republicans from both houses of the legislature. Representative LeRoy M. Green of Rockford was authorized to name a committee of three from the House and two from the Senate to co-operate with a "harmony committee" named two weeks ago.

They plan to confer later with Cook county Republican leaders. Many legislators were represented as feeling that a G.O.P. candidate "without serious political scars" was needed and that "new blood" or someone with legislative experience should be put forward.

The "harmony committee" comprises Paul Samuel of Jacksonville, James Baldwin of Decatur, George A. Seaman of Taylorville, Representative G. J. Johnson of Paxton, and Edward Petri of Belleville.

Rodney Brandon of Batavia was in the city and it was rumored he was in a receptive mood for the governorship, although he has announced his candidacy for congressman-at-large.

King's Body Taken To London to Lie In State in Church

Body Taken on Caisson to Westminster Hall; Crown Rests on Coffin

(Copyright, 1936 by Associated Press) London—(AP)—The body of King George V. was returned to London this afternoon for the four days lying-in-state in the capital of his former empire.

Only a few hours earlier, a sad farewell had been accorded the dead monarch at Sandringham, where his reign came to an end shortly before midnight Monday.

The ten-car royal funeral train pulled into the smoke-encrusted King's Cross station at 2:45 p.m. while tens of thousands of Britons packed the adjacent streets.

They stood, waiting silently and mournfully in the chill air, to pay their last tribute of reverence to the man they had honored in life with loyalty.

An honor guard from the three fighting services—the army, navy, and air force—stood rigidly at attention on the purple-carpeted platform as grenadier guardsmen carried the casket coffin from the black and purple funeral coach.

The gun-carriage placed it on a royal horse-drawn caisson for the procession through the streets of central London to Westminster hall.

There, the great folk of the land were assembling for the lying-in-state ceremonies.

The new king, Edward VIII, who accompanied the body of his father, already had communicated to the House of Commons the declaration: "I am resolved to follow in the way he has set before me."

Prime Minister Baldwin told the commons that the new monarch "will be crowned with appropriate pomp and ceremony next year," indicating that a full year will elapse before the coronation.

The gun-carriage which rumbled into position outside the railroad station on the freshly-sanded driveway was the same one which had conveyed the body of George's father, King Edward VII, to its burial place.

Atop the great coffin rested the imperial crown, glittering in the splendor of its 3,000 diamonds and other precious stones. It was imposed on a purple cushion.

It was one of the rare times when the public has had the opportunity of viewing this symbol of its monarchy in the streets.

Hunt Man Who Shot Venice Policeman

Commandeers Taxi for Ride to St. Louis

St. Louis—(AP)—Police here sought today the slayer of a police sergeant shot to death when he walked into a Venice, Ill., tavern during a holdup.

The lone robber, after shooting Sgt. Charles Chandler of the Venice police three times last night forced a taxicab driver to bring him across McKinley bridge from Venice, then ejected the driver from the cab in St. Louis.

The driver, Edgar Hormann, was in the tavern when the holdup took place. Sgt. Chandler, who entered the tavern unaware a robbery was in progress, was shot before he could draw his pistol.

SUNSET OF POWER

Buck Jones is at the FOX MAJESTIC Theatre now in his latest Universal adventure film, "Sunset of Power," and if amusement shoppers want a real treat they should see this picture without fail.

Placed amidst some of the most beautiful scenes of the West, "Sunset of Power" offers plenty of fast riding, a touch of mystery, romance, desperate rivalry and thrilling action that sets the pulse racing. It has everything that makes a picture worthwhile.

The story concerns a grizzled, craggy old cattle king who attempts to gain revenge for the suffering he has endured in his life by making a young girl bow to his power and suffer likewise. There is another force trying to break his power and the climax offers a genuine surprise.

Actions and Words

A cartoonist in a metropolitan daily has drawn a rather accurate picture of the present puzzling situation in government. A figure with outstretched hands holds two large baskets into which federal money is showering. From his wide-open mouth comes the cry of "State Rights." The hands of Esau and the voice of Jacob is the significant title beneath the cartoon.

In other words, the actions of the people is grabbing every crumb that falls from the table at Washington speaks louder than their verbal protests when the government, striving for money and power to meet the public demand, oversteps the Constitution and the rights of the sovereign states.

Those who clamor for federal money must remember that the bills must eventually be paid. New taxes must be levied from Washington. If the money is to be spent, the states that get it must bow to the demands of the federal holders of the purse strings. Illinois has had to drain to the dregs the cup of submission to federal dictation, and the end is not yet.

Because Washington does not like local government in the matter of old age pensions, the state House of Representatives insists that county administrative boards shall be appointed at Springfield. The one branch of the Assembly which ought to be most representative of the will of the people leans farthest toward Washington.

In all the nation the voice of Jacob shouts for state rights, but the hands of Esau reach for the mess of pottage being cooked up in the national capital. Esau parted with his birthright and came to himself when it was too late to break the bargain. Will the American people make the same mistake?

Cold Weather Phenomena

The low temperatures of the past two days have given rise to many stories of queer happenings on account of the usual conditions. We will not vouch for the truth of any of these stories, as the weather has been too severe to allow us to make adequate investigations, but we are repeating them for what they were worth, following out the old adage that "you need not believe everything you hear, but you can repeat it."

First comes the story of the dairyman who set his barn on fire when he built a blaze under one of his cows to keep her from giving ice cream. The flames froze in the air and neighbors who came to help put out the fire cut them off with axes and threw them on the ice in a nearby pond. When the flames melted they changed the pond into a fine boiling spring, and the dairyman sold his milk business and established a health resort.

Then there's the story of the farmer who went to feed his hogs and was astonished to hear no responsive squeals when he shoveled out the corn. It was terribly cold and the hogs were hungry; they ate all right, but silently. The cold weather continued, and the farmer sold the hogs. The buyer was also astonished, for ever had he loaded and shipped hogs that did not squeal.

Later when the mercury rose, the farmer was scared stiff when he heard terrific squealing in the empty hog house. The frozen squeals had thawed out. The racket continued for several days.

A Strange Tragedy

Rush Holt, young Senator from West Virginia, has expressed himself as ashamed of a condition which is being brought to light before the Labor committee of the House of Representatives. Senator Holt favors a complete federal investigation of deaths in his state said to be due to silicosis contracted by workers in a tunnel near Gauley Bridge, W. Va. The work was done more than two years ago. Nearly two thousand men were employed in the tunnel. Since then 476 of these men have died, and 1,500 are reported victims of silicosis and facing sure death.

It is contended that the contractors did not use proper ventilation in the tunnel, and that the men were compelled to breathe dust from silicate rocks. Judging by the news accounts the entire affair will get a thorough airing. The sacrifice of 2,000 lives on a single industrial project is no light matter, and if there is neglect and carelessness at the root of the matter, it ought to be exposed.

Centralization of Power Leads to Ruin

The preservation of home rule by the states is not a cry of jealous commonwealths seeking their own aggrandizement at the expense of sister states. It is a fundamental necessity if we are to remain a united country.

The doctrine of regulation and legislation by "master minds," in whose judgment and will all the people may gladly and quietly acquiesce, has been too glaringly apparent in Washington during these last ten years. Were it possible to find "master minds" so unselfish, so willing to decide unhesitatingly against their own personal interests or private prejudices, men almost godlike in their ability to hold the scales of justice with an even hand—such a government might be to the interests of the country, but there are none such on our political horizon, and we cannot expect a complete reversal of the teachings of history.

Now, to bring about government by oligarchy masquerading as democracy, it is fundamentally essential that practically all authority and control be centralized in our national government. The individual sovereignty of our states must first be destroyed, except in mere minor matters of legislation. We are safe from the danger of any such departure from the principles upon which this country was founded just so long as the individual home rule of the states is scrupulously preserved and fought for whenever it seems in danger.

Written by Franklin D. Roosevelt while governor of New York.

Justice For Sea Victims

Representative W. L. Sirovich of New York is pressing for new federal legislation which would make more plain and inescapable the financial responsibility of a steamship company toward its passengers.

At the last session of Congress, Representative Sirovich put through a much-needed bill providing that the owners of a vessel are presumed to be aware of her unseaworthiness if such knowledge is possessed by the vessel's captains or by the owners' managing agents.

Now he seeks to do away with a dodge by which tickets sold to passengers bear a limitation of the amount of damages for which the owners will be liable in case of a sea disaster.

Most passengers fail to notice this limitation when they buy their tickets, and could not do anything about it if they did notice it; as a result, they bind themselves in advance as far as the recovery of damages is concerned.

Last year's law was a good one; the new one is equally good. The Morro Castle and Mohawk disasters are not so far in the past that their lessons can be forgotten.

BARBS

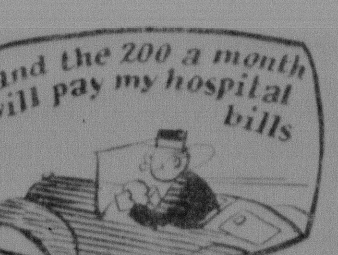

In recent weeks, the nation has learned that music goes round and round, but that Joe Louis' opponents hardly average that many.

One thing about those hospital bombings, the Ethiopian under ether at the time can afterward boast about his embroidery pattern incision.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Racketeers Already Burrowing in on Government's Social Security Program... Sell "Approved" Accounting Systems Which Are Not Required of Employers... Affiliation of Workers With Unions Ferreted Out With Bogue Questionnaires.

By RODNEY DUTCHER (Journal-Courier Washington Correspondent)

Washington—Although the national social security program calls for no tax collections until next year, racketeers are starting early. Both employers and employees already are being victimized through misrepresentations of its requirements.

One racket is the persuasion of employers that reports required from them are so complicated and difficult as to call for installation of special accounting systems—and even for special business machines.

Some agents are selling systems of accounting alleged to be "approved" by the Social Security Board, whereas there actually aren't any special authorized or approved systems.

At social security headquarters it is insisted that no more accounting is required for federal unemployment tax records than the ordinary employer goes through in compiling his payroll. The facts required are chiefly the number of employees, names, amount of money paid, and when employees worked.

Old age benefit reports will require little more information, chiefly as to ages of individuals.

Reports have been received of employers who are deducting from pay envelopes to meet expenses they themselves are expected to pay and of others who intend to pay no taxes for factory workers engaged on piece-work.

Tricked by Questionnaire

From Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Illinois have come copies of questionnaires distributed to employees which appear to seek information helpful in thwarting union activities. They are believed to have been distributed by a manufacturers' organization or strike-breaking agency.

A typical questionnaire, issued by a tire company, demands answers to 32 questions, whereas the SSB regulations would require the employee to answer but one age. It says:

"The questionnaire is to be accurately filled in by every employee for government records. Any information given incorrectly might in many ways make such person ineligible to receive benefits to which he should be entitled. . . . The labor union membership . . . is supposed to be answered for government purposes only. . . ."

All of which is false. The questionnaire then proceeds to ask if the employee is a union member and, if so, of what union; address, telephone number, religion, ownership or rental of home, and many other personal details.

The SSB says it hasn't asked employers for any information concerning individual employees. It has set up an information service to answer all questions of employers and employees in case of doubt as to such requirements.

Nine Justices Agree!

This will be news to you, but the U. S. Supreme Court suddenly seemed to be unanimous on an issue the other day.

The case was that of three Mississippi Negroes named Ed Brown, Henry Shields and Yank Ellington, who contend they should be hanged on the basis of a false murder confession obtained by torture.

The torture was admitted. But the Mississippi supreme court refused to interfere, because the defendants' lawyers hadn't objected in the proper words at the proper time.

One by one, the nine justices leaped—often in indignation—upon the unhappy lawyers representing the state in opposition to the appeal. Justice Roberts, author of vigorous anti-New Deal opinions, seemed especially angry.

During discussion of the trial judge's instructions to the jury concerning the torture evidence, Justice Van Devanter suddenly and heatedly demanded: "Do you mean to infer here that that's a good instruction? Well, I'll tell you why it's not. . . ."

"Well, now, just a minute!" interrupted Chief Justice Hughes as state counsel said nothing could be done about it when defense counsel refused to take advantage of its rights in time.

"You admit the original confessions were obtained by torture and that they were the only evidence. You are arguing . . . that this is not a denial of due process of law. That's your case, isn't it?"

The court ignored Mississippi's procedural points. After its unique demonstration of unanimous feeling, former Governor Brewer of Mississippi, appearing for the Negroes, felt quite confident.

French Senate and Deputies Leaders Reject New Posts

Refuse to Attempt to Form New Cabinet to Replace Laval's Unit

Paris—(AP)—France's governmental crisis tightened today as the first leaders to be offered the premiership refused to step into the uncomfortable shoes of Pierre Laval. The financial situation also began to reflect the uncertainty.

The traditions surrounding the rise and fall of French cabinets brought the first offers of the premiership to Jules Jeanneney, president of the senate, and Fernand Bouisson, president of the chamber of deputies.

Jeanneney's refusal had been a foregone conclusion, and Bouisson likewise declined. In a two-hour conference with President Albert Lebrun, to attempt to form a cabinet after Laval resigned yesterday in the controversy over his foreign policy.

Laval himself, deserted by the dominant radical Socialists amid criticism that he vacillated between Great Britain and Italy in the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, also refused to try to form the 101st government of the third French republic.

With the collapse of Laval's "golden franc" cabinet, more than 800,000 francs in gold were reported to have left the Bank of France for abroad in the first three days of this week.

Judge Samuel on G.O.P. Committee To Pick Candidate

Five from House and Senate Appointed to Join in Party Conference

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Downstate Republican members of the legislature were embarked yesterday on a search for a downstate candidate for governor with qualifications they deem necessary to end party factionalism.

The plan was advanced Wednesday night at a conference of Republicans from both houses of the legislature. Representative LeRoy M. Green of Rockford was authorized to name a committee of three from the House and two from the Senate to co-operate with a "harmony committee" named two weeks ago.

They plan to confer later with Cook county Republican leaders. Many legislators were represented as feeling that a G.O.P. candidate "without serious political scars" was needed and that "new blood" or someone with legislative experience should be put forward.

The "harmony committee" comprises Paul Samuel of Jacksonville, James Baldwin of Decatur, George A. Seaman of Taylorville, Representative G. J. Johnson of Paxton, and Edward Petri of Belleville.

Rodney Brandon of Batavia was in the city and it was rumored he was in a receptive mood for the governorship, although he has announced his candidacy for congressman-at-large.

Mrs. Frank Sullivan Passes Away Here; Illness Was Brief

Acute Appendicitis Causes Death of Young Woman; Funeral Saturday

Mrs. Margaret Rose Sullivan, wife of Chief Frank Sullivan of the Jacksonville fire department, passed away at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning at Our Saviour's hospital. Her illness was of but two days' duration, her death coming as a shock to her relatives and many friends.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Sullivan became ill from an acute attack of appendicitis and was taken to the hospital for an operation. Her condition was serious from the first and became critical Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sullivan was born in Jacksonville March 18, 1904, a daughter of the late J. J. Kelly and Mrs. Mary Doyle Kelly. She was educated in the parochial school and Rount High school from which she graduated in 1922.

For several years Mrs. Sullivan was employed as a saleslady by the Rabjohns and Reid dry goods store. Later she joined the sales staff of Flexner's store and worked at her regular duties there Monday, before she became ill.

Mrs. Sullivan was a woman of wide friendship in her home community. She held the high esteem of all who knew her, and the family will be joined by many in mourning her death. She was a member of the Church of Our Saviour, the American Legion Auxiliary and Royal Neighbors Lodge.

On July 27, 1935, she was united in marriage with Mr. Sullivan. In addition to her husband she leaves her mother, Mrs. Mary Doyle Kelly, and four brothers, Frank, Allen, Joseph and William Kelly.

The remains were prepared for burial at the John M. Carroll funeral parlors, and were taken to the Kelly residence, 250 East Dunlap street, late yesterday afternoon.

Funeral services are to be held Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

Hell Gate Bridge, New York, is 13,553 feet long, but only 2,735 feet span water.

Rites for King in Historic Abbey

To England's hallowed sanctuary, Westminster Abbey, shown above, the body of King George V was to be borne for final services before burial in Windsor. In this centuries-old London church, some of the greatest events in history have taken place, and beneath its pavements have been interred kings and queens, soldiers, statesmen, theologians, scientists, and other notables of the past.

ASK TO DISMISS 3 TRAFFIC CHARGES

Los Angeles—Police Lieutenant R. L. D. Nord requested dismissal of traffic complaints against Richard J. Morton, William J. Lyons and J. E. Thompson.

"On what grounds?" asked Municipal Judge Newell Carr.

"These men are dead. Your Honor," said Nord. "They were killed in traffic accidents."

Mrs. Lida A. Ray to Be Honored Today On 85th Birthday

Quilting Party Arranged on Anniversary at Litterberry Home

Mrs. Lida A. Ray, a resident of Morgan county 67 years, will celebrate her 85th birthday anniversary today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Litter, a short distance northeast of Litterberry.

It will be a pleasant event, as Mrs. Ray is active despite her years, and will be able to take her place around the quilting frames with a group of friends who have been invited for the day. An old-fashioned quilting bee will be an appropriate birthday observance, for Mrs. Ray has always been a homemaker, a woman skilled with her hands in the kitchen or with the sewing needle.

Mrs. Ray came to Morgan county from Ohio when Jacksonville was a sprawling town, a few years after the close of the Civil war.

"Jacksonville at that time was a dilapidated looking place," Mrs. Ray said this week in recalling some of the early day scenes. "There was an old board fence around the park, and a good many of the boards were missing. The streets were unpaved and were knee deep in mud the first time I saw them."

"The country roads were just as bad, and after we reached Jacksonville we walked to Arcadia. The mud was so deep that horses couldn't pull through it."

Mrs. Ray was born in Ross county, Ohio, January 24, 1851, her maiden name being Ross. Her family moved to Morgan county when she was a young woman, and since then she has always lived in the Litterberry and Virginia communities.

She was united in marriage in 1870 with Thomas Alfred Ray, who farmed and also followed the occupation of carpenter and wagon maker. Mr. Ray conducted a wagon repair shop at Litterberry for a number of years. He passed away in 1912.

Mrs. Ray survived a tornado in Ohio when she was five years old, the storm demolishing the home of her parents. Again in 1883, she witnessed destruction and death when a cyclone struck Litterberry and almost wiped out the village. Her home was not damaged, but the wagon shop operated by her husband was blown away.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray were the parents of seven children, four of whom are living. They are Mrs. J. W. Litter with whom she makes her home; Mrs. Gertrude Mansfield, Mason City, Ill.; John Alfred Ray, Arcadia, Ill.; Edgar Ray of Orion, Ill. Mrs. Ray is the last of a family of eight children.

A birthday greeting by airmail was received by Mrs. Ray this week from her nephew, Charles T. Ray of California, who is father of the moving picture actor, Charles Ray.

Mrs. Ray is looking forward to her 85th anniversary with interest, as she will have a number of old friends visit her during the day. She is in good health and keeps busy in her home, helping her daughter with the everyday tasks.

Mrs. Perry Blake whose farm home burned a short time ago, are now living in an outbuilding on the home place.

Even English Monkey Concoction Is a Rarebit for the Palate

Because it can be made in a chafing dish at the table, Welsh rarebit adds a gala touch to the buffet supper or informal party meal. Its tangy flavor makes it a welcome dish for all.

By MARY E. DUGAN
NEA Service Staff Writer

Whether you call it a "rabbit" or "rarebit" the Welsh rarebit is a concoction that always is greeted with delight when it appears as the pièce de résistance of the evening. And one of the nicest things about a rarebit for entertaining at buffet suppers is that you make it at the table. Everybody at the party can help—"comes to the aid of the potter" beginning for a menu featuring cheese than a spoon powdered mustard, few grains cayenne, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 cup ale or beer, 2 eggs.

Melt butter and add cheese and seasonings. The cheese must be cut in small pieces as in the preceding recipe. Cook and stir and as cheese melts rapidly add ale or beer, stirring constantly and vigorously. As soon as all the ale is added, stir in eggs well beaten and continue to cook and stir until thickened and smooth. Serve on crisp hot toast. The rarebit is cooked over hot water.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Halves of grape fruit, cereal, cream, soft cooked eggs, toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: English monkey (made in double boiler in the kitchen or at the table in chafing dish but ready to eat when the family come in), fruit salad, chocolate roll, milk, tea.
DINNER: Baked fresh ham with pineapple, potatoes au gratin, broccoli with lemon butter, cream and apple salad, cranberry sherbet, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

Frosty, fruit cocktail made quite tart and accompanied by the enticing salty tang of herring and anchovy and caviar. Since the rarebit is to be served on crisp toast, use whole wheat, plain rye and pumpernickel breads for the canapés.

Then after the rarebit, serve a crisp green salad with a tart dressing. French endive, escarole, romaine, head lettuce, cress, parsley and chervil, and arrange them in a big wooden bowl. Provide two or three dressings so that your guests will have a choice. Perhaps you prefer an English monkey to a Welsh rarebit. Here are recipes for both.

English Monkey
One cup dry bread crumbs (stale but not crisp), 1 cup evaporated milk and 1 cup water or 1 cup whole milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 package Leader-Kranz cheese, 1 egg slightly beaten, 1 teaspoon salt, few grains cayenne.

Soften bread crumbs in milk and water which have been blended. Melt butter in blazer of chafing dish over hot water. Add cheese cut in pieces and cook and stir until melted. Add crumb mixture, slightly beaten egg and seasonings. Cook until thoroughly blended and thick and smooth and serve on crisp toast. You know you must be very careful not to over-cook cheese dishes and a chafing dish which operates on the principle of the double-boiler is ideal.

Here's the recipe for Welsh rarebit.
Welsh Rarebit
One-half pound mild cheese, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tea-

HURRAH.. HURRAY! I'VE LOST 40 POUNDS

They made me tired—all those slender women who were telling me not to eat potatoes and pastry and ice-cream! They ate the same things I did—yet they never gained a pound!

But I fooled them! Knew something was wrong with my body, so I took tablets day after day containing a simple corrective for abnormal obesity prescribed by doctors the world over.

Results were amazing! I didn't diet, exercise, or drain my system by taking drastic purgatives. But gradually excess fat disappeared. Today I'm trim and slender.

That, in brief, is what thousands of women who have reduced the Marmola way might well tell you if they had the chance. Would you like to learn their secret? Then buy a package of Marmola, read the simple directions, and start at once to get rid of that burdensome fat!

Marmola is put up by one of the best known medical laboratories in America. Since 1907 men and women have purchased more than 20 million packages. Could any better recommendation be had?

Start today! You will soon experience Marmola's benefits. When you have gone far enough, stop taking Marmola. And you will lose the day when you first discovered this marvelous reducing agent!

Marmola is on sale by all dealers—from coast to coast!

Even English Monkey Concoction Is a Rarebit for the Palate

Because it can be made in a chafing dish at the table, Welsh rarebit adds a gala touch to the buffet supper or informal party meal. Its tangy flavor makes it a welcome dish for all.

By MARY E. D'AGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

Whether you call it a "rabbit" or "rarebit" the Welsh rarebit is a concoction that always is greeted with delight when it appears as the pièce de résistance of the evening. And one of the nicest things about a rarebit for entertaining at buffet suppers is that you make it at the table. Everybody at the party can help—"comes to the aid of the party."

I know of no better beginning for a menu featuring cheese than a

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Halves of grapefruit, cereal, cream, soft cooked eggs, toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: English monkey (made in double boiler in the kitchen or at the table in chafing dish but ready to eat when the family come in), fruit salad, chocolate roll, milk, tea.
DINNER: Baked fresh ham with pineapple, potatoes au gratin, broccoli with lemon butter, cress and apple salad, cranberry sherbet, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

Frosty, fruity cocktail made quite tart and accompanied by the enticing salty tang of herring and anchovy and caviar. Since the rarebit is to be served on crisp toast, use whole wheat, plain rye and pumpernickel breads for the canapés.

Then after the rarebit, serve a crisp green salad with a tart dressing. French endive, escarole, romaine, head lettuce, cress, parsley and chervil, and arrange them in a big wooden bowl. Provide two or three dressings so that your guests will have a choice. Perhaps you prefer an English monkey to a Welsh rarebit. Here are recipes for both.

English Monkey
One cup dry bread crumbs (stale but not crisp), 1 cup evaporated milk and 1 cup water or 1 cup whole milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 package Liederkranz cheese, 1 egg slightly beaten, 1 teaspoon salt, few grains cayenne.
Soften bread crumbs in milk and water which have been blended. Melt butter in blazer of chafing dish over hot water. Add cheese cut in pieces and cook and stir until melted. Add crumb mixture, slightly beaten egg and seasonings. Cook until thoroughly blended and thick and smooth and serve on crisp toast. You know you must be very careful not to over-cook cheese dishes and a chafing dish which operates on the principle of the double-boiler is ideal.

Here's the recipe for Welsh rarebit.

Social Events

State Street Society Has All Day Meeting
In spite of the zero temperature there was a good attendance at the meeting of the State Street Ladies' Aid society Wednesday. A delicious luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. Mary Heideman, Mrs. Carl Gehhart, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Charles Hackett and Miss Cunningham as hostesses.

A very delightful and instructive after dinner talk was given by Mrs. Edith Leeper on the conditions of public health.

The business meeting was called at two o'clock with the usual reports of interest to members. A tribute was given to the memory of Mrs. Felix Farrell who was ever a loyal member.

Quitting and a social hour completed a very pleasant day.

A FARMER BOY

ONE of the best known medical men in the United States was Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, New York, who was born on a farm in Pa. He noted daily in his medical career that many of his prescriptions prepared from roots, barks, and herbs, such as "Golden Medical Discovery," produced astonishing results. He early founded a Clinic and Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y. Advice by letter is free. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is an herbal extract which eliminates poisons from the intestines and tones up the digestive system. Pimples and blotches caused by faulty elimination disappear and you feel the tonic and strengthening effect of this well tried medicine. Ask your Druggist now! Tablets 50 cents, liquid $1.00 and $1.50.

MANY ATTEND SHOWER AT CARROLLTON HOME

Jerseyville.—Several Jerseyville people motored to Carrollton Sunday to attend a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Henson in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Henson Jr., who were married during the holidays.

The guests from here included Mr. and Mrs. John Kallal, Mrs. Joseph Kallal and daughter Rosalie, Mrs. Frank Kallal and daughter Julia Ann, Mrs. J. V. Cahalek, Mrs. Eugene Kallal, Mrs. Francis Kallal, Mrs. Thomas Powderly, Mrs. Barth Bauer, Mrs. Joseph Kallal Jr., Lawrence Kallal, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kallal and family, and Mrs. John Maugh.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Ernest Perenbach was guest of honor at a potluck dinner given Sunday at her home here in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh, Miss Elizabeth Kallal, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schafer.

Mayer Otto Hoffman and Mrs. Edward Putze of Alton were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Neely.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Nafsiger of St. Louis spent Sunday in Jerseyville at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seago.

Miss Frances Ware returned Monday to St. Louis after spending the week end here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Ware.

HURRAH.. HURRAY!

I'VE LOST 40 POUNDS

They made me tired—all those slender women who were telling me not to eat potatoes and pastry and ice-cream! They ate the same things I did—yet they never gained a pound! But I fooled them! I knew something was wrong with my body, so I took a tablet a day containing a simple corrective for abnormal obesity prescribed by doctors the world over. Results were amazing. I didn't diet, exercise, or drain my system by taking drastic purgatives. But gradually excess fat disappeared. Today I'm trim and slender.

That, in brief, is what thousands of women who have reduced the Marmola way might well tell you if they had the chance. Would you like to learn their secret? Then buy a package of Marmola, read the simple directions, and start at once to get rid of that burdensome fat! Marmola is put up by one of the best known medical laboratories in America. Since 1907 men and women have purchased more than 20 million packages. Could any better recommendation be had?

Start today! You will soon experience Marmola's benefits. When you have gone far enough, stop taking Marmola. And you will bless the day when you first discovered this marvelous reducing agent! Marmola is on sale by all dealers—from coast to coast!

To Speak at P.T.A.

Dr. Elizabeth Ball of the State Health Department will be the speaker at the Parent-Teacher meeting to be held Monday evening, January 27, in the Grade school building. This is the regular monthly meeting. Since the Parent-Teacher endeavor to help in the problems of the school and home and since Health is one of the seven cardinal points of the Parent-Teacher program, the theme this month is Health.

This has been a winter, when teachers, parents and citizens, have been much concerned over communicable diseases, hence the main part of the program Monday evening will be devoted to the discussion of Health. It is expected that Dr. Ball will stress the subject from the home angle. She will be glad to answer questions along this line. It is the duty of thoughtful men and women to become informed on this subject.

There will be some musical numbers and a business session in conjunction with Dr. Ball's address.

Postpone Revival

The revival meeting which was announced to begin at the White Hall Tabernacle Baptist church Wednesday night was postponed until Monday, January 27, on account of the very cold weather. The meeting will be in charge of the pastor, Elder Homer Evans of Winchester.

Mrs. Eva Johnson of Fidelity and her daughter, Mrs. Eddie Sanberg of Ashland, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ellington on Jacksonville street, Tuesday and in the afternoon drove to Floodhouse to call on Mrs. Edward Hardy and family. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Ellington are sisters.

The men of Adams Rebekah lodge entertained the members of the lodge after the business meeting was concluded Thursday evening and served refreshments.

Courtney Called to Democratic Meeting; G.O.P. is Deadlocked

Chicago.—(P)—Thomas J. Courtney, Cook county state's attorney, today appeared to be certain of Democratic endorsement for re-nomination, having been invited to appear before the county central committee's slate-making committee at a session later in the day.

Reports that Courtney would be "dumped" have persisted, but in a recent address before a civic organization he insisted he would make the race.

Courtney supporters insisted that Patrick Nash, county chairman, had assured them the state's attorney would be endorsed.

Meanwhile, the Republican county committee continued its series of apparently fruitless meetings as state and county candidates maneuvered for advantages of endorsement. A "reorganization" group, under the direction of Fred Ludin, has opposed efforts of William H. Weber, committee chairman, George Harding and other committeemen to endorse the candidacy of C. Wayland Brooks for governor.

A state attributed to the "reorganization" was said to list tentatively the following candidates:

Governor—John G. Oglesby, Elkhart.
Lieutenant governor—Elmer J. Schnackenberg, Chicago.
Auditor—Earl Searcy, Springfield.
Attorney general—Wayland Brooks, Chicago.
Secretary of state—William J. Stratton, Chicago.
Auditor—J. Paul Kuhn, Batavia.
Treasurer—H. Wallace Caldwell, Chicago.
Congressman-at-large—Chauncey McCormick, Chicago.

Oglesby, Schnackenberg, Searcy, Brooks, Stratton and Caldwell have announced they were candidates for the nomination for governor.

Answer Questions About Bonus Bonds

Washington.—(P)—Here are answers to some questions frequently asked in connection with the bill to pay off adjusted service (bonus) certificates in cashable $50 bonds:

Q.—If I hold a certificate how do I apply for bonds?

A.—An application may be filed with the Veterans' Administration in Washington at any time before the certificate matures in 1945. A veteran may send in his application personally or through a representative prescribed in regulations yet to be issued.

Q.—If I haven't applied for a certificate, may I do so?

A.—Yes. The application should be sent to the same place.

Q.—Suppose death intervenes after application for bonds is made?

A.—The application will be valid if the Veterans' Administration finds it bears the bona-fide signature of the applicant and discloses an intention to claim the benefits of the act. If death occurs after application is filed before receipt of bonds, the bonds will go to the estate of the veteran.

Q.—What happens after bond applications are filed?

A.—The Veterans' Administration will certify to the treasury the amount of $50 bonds due a veteran. The amount will be the full 1945 maturity value of the certificate minus the principal of any loans outstanding against it and any unpaid interest accrued prior to October 1, 1931.

Q.—Suppose this interest is owed to a bank, not to the government?

A.—The government assumes the obligation, paying off the interest.

Q.—When do I get my bonds?

A.—As soon as the treasury can print them and mail them in accordance with certification from the Veterans' Administration.

Q.—What can I do with them after

I get them?

A.—Any time after June 15 next the holder can take them to a local post office and cash them in full or in part. Banks will not cash them because they are special bonds and not marketable. If you do not cash them right away you will get 3 per cent annual interest until 1945, but if you cash them the first year after next June 15 no interest is paid.

Q.—Can a creditor of a veteran get possession of the bonds?

A.—The bill says they are not subject to attachment, levy or seizure under any legal process.

On Capitol Hill, where the measure swept through the House yesterday, 346 to 59, after previously passing the Senate, 74 to 16, leaders reiterated that the veto question was merely academic, so far as the fate of the bill is concerned.

Legislators were so confident that the bill would pass over a veto that they were already speculating as to whether Mr. Roosevelt will demand new taxes to finance the payments to veterans.

According to the lowest estimates, $1,000,000,000 will be needed within a few months if the bill becomes law. The government, after passing out baby bonds of $50 denomination to pay off 3,500,000 adjusted service certificates will stand ready to cash the bonds next June 15.

While the ultimate cost is estimated at $2,491,000,000, bonus leaders continued to insist that holders of only about $1,000,000,000 will call for cash on or immediately after June 15, 3 per cent interest if they hold the bonds.

for cash will total $2,000,000,000, despite the fact that veterans will draw on or immediately after June 15, 3 per cent interest if they hold the bonds.

"Guess" Roosevelt Will Veto Bonus; To Pass Over Rejection

Believe Billion Dollars Will Be Needed Immediately to Cash Bonds

Washington.—(P)—Intimates of President Roosevelt hazarded the guess today that he would veto the baby bond bonus bill which reached his desk from congress yesterday, but the president himself gave not the slightest hint of his attitude.

Legislators were so confident that the bill would pass over a veto that they were already speculating as to whether Mr. Roosevelt will demand new taxes to finance the payments to veterans.

Answer Questions About Bonus Bonds

Washington—(P)—Here are answers to some questions frequently asked in connection with the bill to pay off adjusted service (bonus) certificates in cashable $50 bonds:
Q—If I hold a certificate how do I apply for bonds?
A—An application may be filed with the Veterans' Administration in Washington at any time before the certificate matures in 1945. A veteran may send in his application personally or through a representative prescribed in regulations yet to be issued.
Q—If I haven't applied for a certificate, may I do so?
A—Yes. The application should be sent to the same place.
Q—Suppose death intervenes after application for bonds is made?
A—The application will be valid if the Veterans' Administration finds it bears the bona-fide signature of the applicant and discloses an intention to claim the benefits of the act. If death occurs after application is filed before receipt of bonds, the bonds will go to the estate of the veteran.
Q—What happens after bond applications are filed?
A—The Veterans' Administration will certify to the treasury the amount of $50 bonds due a veteran. The amount will be the full 1945 maturity value of the certificate minus the principal of any loans outstanding against it and any unpaid interest accrued prior to October 1, 1931. If a veteran owes any interest for loans after October 1, 1931, it is cancelled.
Q—Suppose this interest is owed to a bank, not to the government?
A—The government assumes the obligation, paying off the interest.
Q—When do I get my bonds?
A—As soon as the treasury can print them and mail them in accordance with certification from the Veterans' Administration.
Q—What can I do with them after I get them?
A—Any time after June 15 next the holder can take them to a local post office and cash them in full or in part. Banks will not cash them because they are special bonds and not marketable. If you do not cash them right away you will get 3 per cent annual interest until 1945, but if you cash them the first year after next June 15 no interest is paid.
Q—Can a creditor of a veteran get possession of the bonds?
A—The bill says they are not subject to attachment, levy or seizure under any legal process.

"Guess" Roosevelt Will Veto Bonus; To Pass Over Rejection

Believe Billion Dollars Will Be Needed Immediately to Cash Bonds

Washington—(P)—Intimates of President Roosevelt hazarded the guess today that he would veto the $500 million bonus bill which reached his desk from congress yesterday, but the president himself gave not the slightest hint of his attitude.

On Capitol Hill, where the measure swept through the House yesterday, 346 to 59, after previously passing the Senate, 74 to 16, leaders reiterated that the veto question was merely academic, so far as the fate of the bill is concerned.
Legislators were so confident that the bill would pass over a veto that they were already speculating as to whether Mr. Roosevelt will demand new taxes to finance the payments to veterans.
According to the lowest estimates, $1,000,000,000 will be needed within a few months if the bill becomes law. The government, after passing out baby bonds of $50 denomination to pay off 3,500,000 adjusted service certificates will stand ready to cash the bonds next June 15.
While the ultimate cost is estimated at $2,491,000,000, bonus leaders continued to insist that holders of only about $1,000,000,000 will call for cash on or immediately after June 15. Some others say the quick demand for cash will total $2,000,000,000, despite the fact that veterans will draw on 3 per cent interest if they hold the bonds.

Courtney Called to Democratic Meeting; G.O.P. is Deadlocked

Believe Cook State's Attorney Will Be Endorsed for Coming Campaign

Chicago—(P)—Thomas J. Courtney, Cook county state's attorney, today appeared to be certain of Democratic endorsement for re-nomination, having been invited to appear before the county central committee's slate-making committee at a session later in the day.

Reports that Courtney would be "dumped" have persisted, but in a recent address before a civic organization he insisted he would make the race.

Courtney supporters insisted that Patrick Nash, county chairman, had assured them the state's attorney would be endorsed.

Meanwhile, the Republican county committee continued its series of apparently fruitless meetings as state and county candidates maneuvered for advantages of endorsement. A "reorganization" group, under the direction of Fred Ludin, has opposed efforts of William H. Weber, committee chairman, George Harding and other committeemen to endorse the candidacy of C. Wayland Brooks for governor.

A slate attributed to the "reorganization" was said to list tentatively the following candidates:
Governor—John G. Oglesby, Elkhart.
Lieutenant governor—Elmer J. Schnackenberg, Chicago.
Auditor—Earl Searcy, Springfield.
Attorney general—Wayland Brooks, Chicago.
Secretary of state—William J. Stratton, Chicago.
Auditor—J. Paul Kuhn, Batavia.
Treasurer—H. Wallace Caldwell, Chicago.
Congressman-at-large—Chauncey McCormick, Chicago.

Oglesby, Schnackenberg, Searcy, Brooks, Stratton and Caldwell have announced they were candidate for the nomination for governor.

Interior Finishing Of Post Office is Nearing Completion

Job May Be Done in Six Weeks; New Office for Postmaster

Work on the remodeling and enlargement of the Jacksonville post office is about 85% complete. D. H. Robertson, federal construction engineer, said yesterday. All of the structural work is complete, and interior finishing is now the principal work in progress.

The laying of mosaic in the new lobby is yet to be done, also the finishing of the money order section, which will be located at the south end of the lobby. As soon as the money order equipment can be moved to the new location from the northeast corner of the building, where it is now established, work will begin in that area on the new postmaster's office.

The office of the postmaster will be at the east end of the present lobby. The work of putting down floors through the building, the attaching of hardware, and decorating is going forward. The work is moving as fast as possible, considering the fact that the building is occupied and that arrangements have to be made for caring for the usual business of the various postal departments.

The job will probably be finished in two months or six weeks, if more rapid progress is made. One partition remains to be taken out and a new one built to provide new quarters for the postmaster. But the main job now is to finish up the interior and get the postal services into their new locations as fast as possible.

MARTHA H. DOYING BECOMES BRIDE OF WASHINGTON MAN

Announcement has been received here by relatives of the marriage of Miss Martha Harriet Doying and Thomas Woodrow Harrison at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Doying, 4219 River Road, Northwest, Washington, D. C. The ceremony took place Jan. 18.

Mrs. Harrison graduated from the Springfield High school and later attended college in Washington, D. C. Mr. Harrison is an accountant in Washington, where the bridal couple will reside.

In 1929, American farmers had a cash income of $10,500,000,000 as compared with only $4,328,000,000 in 1932.

Inmate of County Home Dies; Relate Account of Injury

William Robinson, 78, Was Struck by Chair; Not Cause of Death

A coroner's jury investigating the death of William Robinson, 78, an inmate at the Morgan county home, yesterday listened to witnesses tell of an injury Robinson received at the hands of another inmate. Robinson died Wednesday at the county home and owing to the circumstances an inquest was ordered by Coroner Elmer Sample.

Although the decedent was struck on one side of his face with a chair by another inmate, the jury decided Robinson's death was caused by erysipelas, an infection of the head being a contributory cause.

Ben Shimpf, who lives at the county home, told the coroner's jury that he struck Robinson last week when Robinson molested him.

Everett Long, superintendent of the county home; Dr. T. O. Hardesty, county physician, and George Wilson, an inmate, were other witnesses.

Testimony was to the effect that Robinson was in a bad physical condition and in the opinion of the jurors the injury did not cause his death.

Jurors were Austin Patterson, Henry Wax, W. W. Jackson, Ben Baker, Albert A. Hall and D. P. Gustafson.

Robinson had been a resident of Jacksonville for many years, and about ten years ago went to the county home to reside. Funeral services and interment will take place at the county home.

YOUTH FINDS ZERO DAY FINE FOR RACE

High School Student Runs in Trunks on Wager

The sub-zero temperature Wednesday afternoon failed to keep a local high school student, Earl Rabjohns, from carrying out a wager. He ran from the high school to Capps factory clad only in trunks, and without shoes.

The exposure to the intense cold left no ill effects on the youth. The unusual venture was witnessed by several students, and yesterday was discussed generally in high school circles. The temperature at the time of the exploit was about 10 degrees below zero.

REMOVE MORE SHOT FROM SHERIFF WOODS' HAND

Sheriff Kenneth Woods is wearing a bandage on his left hand again this week, following the removal of a shot-gun pellet from his thumb. Wounded by coal thieves more than three months ago, the sheriff still carries a number of shot in his hand and arm. Still more of these probably will be removed at different times.

THIS NATURAL FOOD GENTLY REGULATES YOUR SYSTEM

Furnishes Needed "Bulk" for Regular Habits

Your doctor will tell you that keeping healthy depends far more on proper diet than on drugs, that common constipation is usually due to insufficient "bulk" in meals, and that patent medicines give you only temporary relief.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies gently acting "bulk" which corrects the cause of common constipation. This "bulk" takes up moisture, forming a soft mass which helps to cleanse the system.

ALL-BRAN gives your body the regular internal exercise it needs to prevent sluggishness. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

Studies on normal men and women have shown that this delicious cereal is perfectly satisfactory. Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity, with milk or cream—or use in cooking.

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Consult your doctor if you do not gain relief this way. ALL-BRAN is much more effective than bran-product. Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk."

Seventh and Eighth Grade Students Get 100 Per Cent Awards

Assembly Held at Junior High School Thursday To Award Honors

Impressive ceremonies marked the assembly of the David Prince Junior High school held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium, when the announcement of awards was made to the students.

On the calendar of events of the school this occasion is one anticipated with great interest and pleasure by the entire group. This plan of awards for fine qualities in character and certain achievements in scholastic attainments is sponsored by the Student Council, directed by Miss Mary Clampt of the faculty.

The names of those who were eligible for a certain award were impressively read and graciously recognized and commended. For the final award the 100 per cent group was announced, which included those students who had won by their diligent efforts all four awards.

In closing the ceremony Miss Heister Burbridge, principal, fittingly congratulated the faculty advisors, who so loyally aided in this achievement and commended the student groups upon their splendid co-operation, urging them to continue in such high aims.

David Prince pupils who received the 100 per cent awards are:

Eighth Grade—Bob Euter, Mary Margaret Spencer, Roberta Cantsey, Loretta Loux, Clara B. Nelms, Anna Louise Rataichak, Bob Allan, Bob Weaver, Marcy Osborne, Jack Roy, Bob Pine, Arden Black, Pauline Miller, Mimi Meyers, Joan Gilchrist, Betty Ann Green, Leolla Sloan.

Seventh Grade—Betty Barnes, Ruth Jean Siegfried, Harris Rowe, Lucille Black, Betty Cobb, El Nora Siene, Marie Gebhard, Margaret Nelms, Blanche Eades, Janie Frank.

MUSICAL PROGRAM HEARD THURSDAY BY KIWANIS MEMBERS

A musical program was enjoyed at the Thursday meeting of the Jacksonville Kiwanis club. The club men were entertained by selections given by a trio and soloist from MacLurray College. Miss Mahala McGehee was at the piano. Miss Barbara Koenig was cellist and Miss Lurene Plumie, violinist. The vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Mardelle Smith.

The program included "Tales of Hoffman" by the trio, "The Gypsy" and "Love's a Merchant," vocal solos, "Rondine" and "Serenade," "One Fleeting Hour," violin solos by Miss Plumie, "Elegie" by Miss Koenig, "Gypsy Dance" by the trio and "At Dawning," Miss Smith soloist accompanied by the trio.

EVERGREEN TREES REGARDED AS GOOD CROP FOR ILLINOIS

Urbana, Ill.—Christmas tree shortages such as occurred in Chicago this past holiday season indicate that thousands of acres of idle land in Illinois might profitably be planted to evergreen trees, according to J. B. Davis, extension forester for the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The Chicago market ran 145,000 trees short, and eleven-hour prices soared to as high as $3 for the choicest remaining trees. This shortage was caused mainly by the fact that most wholesale dealers caught with surplus supplies in recent years, ordered smaller shipments for the 1935 season, Davis explained. Since they were forced to order months ahead from such distant points as Maine and Washington, it was impossible to regulate orders very closely to demand. When the shortage loomed, there was no time for second orders.

By having to order months in advance, dealers stand to lose either by having too many trees or by not being able to supply the demand. If local trees were available, the cut could be regulated more closely to demand. In years of exceptionally heavy buying such as the one just past, additional supplies could be rushed to market on short notice.

Idle land, especially in northern Illinois, could very well be planted to Christmas trees, Davis said. The trees may be planted at the rate of 2,700 to the acre and the entire crop can be harvested in 12 years. The plantation trees have the advantage over forest-grown trees in that they develop under regulated conditions and more uniform growth of small branches by being bud-pruned the year before they are to be cut.

Being produced close to market, Illinois-grown Christmas trees would not have to be cut so early and would be received by users in much better condition than trees shipped from distant states. Also, the short haul to market would allow the producer to sell at a lower price and still have a greater margin of profit.

Mrs. Sophia Riley spent one day last week with Mrs. J. L. Thady. Charlie Dulan and wife attended the funeral of his cousin, Frank Dulan, in Winchester last week.

Francis Brickey, wife and two children were Roodhouse callers recently. Mrs. Lloyd Beel, son Dean, spent one day last week with Mrs. Wm. Lovell.

Mr. Southwell, agent for Stark Bros. Nursery, was a caller here Tuesday morning.

The P.T.A. of Oak Hill postponed their regular meeting from Friday, January 17 to this evening.

Miss Lucille Brickey, who has been sick with a cold for a few days, was able to return to school Thursday of last week.

About twenty-one or twenty-two of the neighbors met one day last week and shucked corn for James McCarty, who has been very sick at the hospital in Jacksonville for some time. Mrs. Howard McCracken, Mrs. Fred Stringer, Mrs. Joe Maloney helped Mrs. McCarty with the dinner.

Wm. A. Walker and family, of Jacksonville, spent one evening last week with his parents here.

Mrs. J. L. Thady, Mrs. Roy Thady, Mrs. Frances Brickey, Charlie Dulan and wife were among the Jacksonville callers last week.

Mrs. Roy Thady and little daughter, Shirley Ann, went to Roodhouse one day last week to care for her mother, Mrs. Sawyer, who is sick at this writing.

Those visiting one evening last week in the Wm. Walker home were Clyde Walker, wife, and son Dale, Tom and Joe Korne, Elmer Bunch and Oscar Southwell.

Mrs. Oscar Southwell is home for a few days visit at this writing.

EVERGREEN TREES REGARDED AS GOOD CROP FOR ILLINOIS

Urbana, Ill.—Christmas tree shortages such as occurred in Chicago this past holiday season indicate that thousands of acres of idle land in Illinois might profitably be planted to evergreen trees, according to J. H. Davis, extension forester for the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The Chicago market ran 145,000 trees short, and eleventh hour prices soared to as high as $3 for the choicest remaining trees. This shortage was caused mainly by the fact that most wholesale dealers caught with surplus supplies in recent years, ordered smaller shipments for the 1935 season. Davis explained. Since they were forced to order months ahead from such distant points as Maine and Washington, it was impossible to regulate orders very closely to demand. When the shortage loomed, there was no time for second orders.

By having to order months in advance, dealers stand to lose either by having too many trees or by not being able to supply the demand. If local trees were available, the cut could be regulated more closely to demand. In years of exceptionally heavy buying such as the one just past additional supplies could be rushed to market on short notice.

Idle land especially in northern Illinois could very well be planted to Christmas trees, Davis said. The trees may be planted at the rate of 2,700 to the acre and the entire crop can be harvested in 12 years. The plantation trees have the advantage over forest-grown trees in that they develop under regulated conditions and more uniform growth of small branches by being bud-pruned the year before they are to be cut.

Being produced close to market, Illinois-grown Christmas trees would not have to be cut so early and would be received by users in much better condition than trees shipped from distant states. Also, the short haul to market would allow the producer to sell at a lower price and still have a greater margin of profit.

I.S.D. Tigers Dump Bath-Lynchburg At Ashland Tournament 29-26

Murrayville and Feithshans Will Invade Local Courts For Cage Features Tonight

Fires will burn brightly under the boilers of the heating plants of two local gymnasiums tonight when Murrayville high comes here for a tussle with Routh high on the Liberty Hall court, and Feithshans high of Springfield invades the David Prince gymnasium for a game with the Jacksonville high Crimsons.

The two games, expected to be features when they were booked, remain in the expected status. Routh high's excellent showing against Illinois School for the Deaf last week, and Jacksonville high's high scoring victory over Franklin and other teams put the tussle up near the top of the list in customer interest.

Murrayville last week barged into the finals of the annual Winchester tournament, being clipped, gain by White Hall, which this year was two of the players that won Murrayville a district championship last year. Routh showed a new high scoring speed against the Tigers and should be able to match shots with the Shadows. Two games, beginning at seven and eight o'clock, are scheduled.

Feithshans ran last in a field of three seeking the Springfield city basketball championship, but Leo Duke's charges have shown a lot of real basketball this year. Only six more home are listed on the J. H. S. schedule, three of which are with the Tigers, Waverly, and Jacksonville.

Routh has another engagement carded for the week-end, journeying to Quincy where they will meet the next semester Quincy high team. Quincy played its second game of the first semester against the Rockets and gave them a terrific bumping over the basketball road, but with three men of that quiet becoming ineligible at the end of first semester, the Rockets will face almost an entirely new set-up.

Illness Becomes Foe
Illness, brought on by the cold wave, is becoming almost as serious a menace as opposing basketball teams to records. Coupled with that is the threat of further postponements of games because of snow storms and inclement weather, tending to whip some games completely off the air.

NOTICE
Mrs. Henry Schall's Public Sale has been postponed until January 28.

Swifts Keep Lead In Y.M.C.A. Cage Race

Spill Lynnville 44-24 To Stay In Front; Smiths And Chevies Win

Swifts Packers maintained their lead in the Y.M.C.A. basketball league last night at the David Prince gymnasium, defeating Lynnville 44-24. Smiths and Chevies remained in the race for a split title by winning their games from the Merchants and Playboys.

Swifts and Smiths will meet in the crucial game of the first round next week. These two teams postponed their scheduled opener, and have rescheduled it for next week, probably Thursday night.

Games went according to dope last night, with the Chevies rallying in the second quarter to take a lead away from the Playboys and then go on to win 33 to 21, while the league's leading scorer, George Welborn, was adding 16 more points to his total. Smiths had a run with the Merchants, holding them scoreless in the second and fourth quarters to win 32 to 21.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York—Boston writers are likening Bill Tilden to Babe Ruth. Jack Dempsey has lost none of the old glamour—he was almost mobbed by admirers when he popped into Chicago for a social visit.

W. A. Benswanger, president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, formerly was a music critic of note. . . . and James Mulvey, vice-president of the Dodgers, doubles as a movie exec at $400 per week.

Eddie Ainsworth, the old catcher, is turning up his pipes for another season of umpiring in the Southern Association. . . . Wild Bill Mehlhorn has regained his long lost putting touch and is red hot on the coast.

When you ask Mrs. Helen Willis Moody if she'll play in this year's nationals, she puts on the W. K. poker face—but if you can get odds she will not, grab 'em. . . . Ernie Lanigan, the International League's denon press agent, was baseball's first statistician. . . . Although only 27, Mel Ott has just signed his twelfth major league contract.

Satchel Peet Carnera is back from Italy, looking for set-ups. . . . Mike Kelly of Minneapolis says 1936 will be baseball's best year since 1929. . . . here's hoping. . . . Clark Griffith must believe so, too, with a $500,000 price tag on Buddy Myers. . . . New York scribbles can't stop talking about what would have happened if Charlie Retzlaff had landed that first right to be tossed at Emballer Louis.

George Perry, who press agents for the Yanks, is an old vaudeville song and dance man and always helps the baseball writers polish up the facts for their annual dinner. . . . Looks like Wally Berger is condemned to spend another season with the Braves. . . . This is the open season for holdouts—but where are they?

Celtics' Sleight of Hand

Nat Hickey, forward, lays the ball on the back of little Davey Banks, guard, as the famous New York Celtics beat the Bostonians, 45-31, in a north riot in the Colosseum. Boo-Goo Bigger, home team guard, dashes in to break it up.

The New York Celtics, annually the strongest basketball team that can be assembled from the white players, are making their annual swing through the south, under the sponsorship of Kate Smith, radio songbird.

These men play basketball but five months of the year, but during that time, hand down from $5,000 to $8,000. Their squad this year is composed of six players. Dutch Dehnert, a veteran of 18 years, Joe Lopchik, 15 years veteran, Nat Hickey, 14 years on the courts, Davey Banks, the bantam of the squad and a player for 13 years, Pat Herlihy and Paul Birch are the regulars. Birch is the only first year man on the squad, coming to the Celtics from DuQuenne where he rated all-American honors.

Despite the new three second rule, the Celtics often go into their favorite pivot-post play in tight games and really go to town with fast passing.

They were scheduled to show here last year, but had to give up their schedule combat with the New York Renaissance team because of injuries. The Renaissance are making Central Illinois during the coming week, opening at Springfield Sunday.

V. E. Moore, coach of the CCC team, is in the market for some basketball games. They've booked a pair with the Alsey Blackhawks, and are looking for some other competition.

The CCC boys are using the Illinois College court for practice sessions once a week. Moore has a neat working aggregation coming along, too.

This is one time of the year when most of the sports followers wish they were baseball cruses. It would be almost time to be heading for the southland and a bit of sunshine.

Sports writers have been recalling that Dan McGugin, who died the other day, went down to Vanderbilt to look over a coaching job there, and remained there for 30 years.

Because of the shake-up in the Illinois Valley conference this year, White Hall high is without a game for this Friday night. They were scheduled to play at Pleasant Hill, but when the conference was split into two divisions they gave up their game to Winchester. Winchester thanked them for the shift by scheduling a game with them for Saturday night, so that the White Hall team would have a game during the week. Now it looks as if the Wildcats will provide White Hall some of their toughest opposition.

White Hall's record is the only one of central Illinois teams with the exception of Cathedral of Springfield, which will compare with Jacksonville high. White Hall has lost but one game thus far, and that was to Murrayville in Murrayville's gym.

Pittsfield's basketball fans are looking ahead to the game there Saturday night when Bill Strickland, former Indian coach, brings his Macomb quintet down there for a game. Strickland coached a few of the boys on this year's team before he went to Macomb a couple years ago.

Franklin is showing a lot of interest in the students that will enroll in its high school. Once a week the eighth grade students of the county schools are invited to come in to the Franklin gym and use the court. The idea is that when they come into high school, they will know something more about a basketball than the fact that it bounces.

Eddie Rolan, Michigan State forward, has probably one of the unique luck pieces of the country. It's an old bed casket he has had since he was a student in Buchanan, Mich., high school. He puts the charm on the scorer's table when he goes into the game, and it stays there until the game is over.

Alsey And Roodhouse Win In Tournament

Other Two Grade School Teams Fail To Appear And Forfeits Ordered

Scores Last Night
Alsey 14; Kampsville 12.
Roodhouse 35; South Jacksonville 7.
Bluffs 2; Chapin 0 (forfeit).
Hardin 2; Hillview 0 (forfeit).

Games Today
7 p. m.—Alsey vs. Hardin.
8 p. m.—Bluffs vs. Roodhouse.

Alsey, Jan. 23.—Alsey and Roodhouse played their way into the semi-finals, and Hardin and Bluffs were awarded a place in the semi-finals, when their opponents in the Alsey Tilt-Cup tournament failed to appear here tonight for the first games of the grade school team meeting.

Alsey had a tussle with Kampsville before entering the semi-finals, winning out by a 14 to 12 score after a thrilling game. Roodhouse's tall team had its own way with the South Jacksonville midgets 35 to 7.

Cold forced postponement of the games Wednesday night, and six of the eight teams showed up for the round scheduled for tonight. Semi-finals will be played Friday night and the finals are scheduled for Saturday night.

Franklin Spills New Berlin To Become Next Tiger Rival; Ashland and Converse Win

Scores Last Night
I. S. D. 29; Bath-Lynchburg 26.
Franklin 28; New Berlin 22.
Ashland 27; Chandlerville 21.
Converse 29; Tallula 27 (overtime).

Games Tonight
7:20 p. m.—I. S. D. vs. Franklin.
8:30 p. m.—Ashland vs. Converse.

Ashland, Jan. 23.—Illinois School for the Deaf's red-hot cagers turned back Bath-Lynchburg's great basketball team here tonight in the opening round of the Ashland invitational tournament, and Friday night will meet Franklin high's Flashies who tonight disposed of New Berlin, in the semi-finals. Ashland high also advanced to the semi-finals with a victory over Chandlerville, and will meet Converse of Springfield, winner over Tallula in an overtime session, ended by the "sudden death" type of ending.

Barping out to a four point lead in the first quarter, the dribbling Tigers kept their margin almost intact up to the last second of play against the Bath quintet, making one of the greatest bids in its history for the Ashland title.

Wells led the Tiger attack with nine points, but all of the regulars broke into the scoring column as they set up through the Bath defense for set-up shots, and when unable to get thru, bombarded the hoop successfully from the deeper reaches of the court. The Tigers marked up their victory by a 29 to 26 score.

Franklin, despite the fact that it failed to score in the final quarter, defeated New Berlin 28 to 22. The Flashies, back in form and with their regular line-up intact, romped out to a 26 to 12 lead at the end of the third quarter, and then slumped completely, failing to register as New Berlin popped the threads for ten points.

Ashland had the lead on the Chandlerville Comets all the way, but had to use their best basketball to win the game with a 27 to 21 score. Adkins and Lynn led the Panther attack, while Dietrich was the high scorer for the Comets.

Conway's basket after two minutes of play in the overtime gave Converse the decision over Tallula, after the Tallula team had set the pace through the first three quarters. Tallula had a five point lead going into the last quarter, but Conway, who tossed in 17 points for Converse, led an uprising which knocked the count. Officials announced that the winner would be determined by the team scoring the first two points in the overtime period.

A large crowd turned out despite the cold weather, to watch the four fast and thrilling games.

Two Are Hurt
Two Virginia men were injured on Tuesday when they fell on the ice. Bradley Thompson fell on the southeast corner of the square, striking his head on a water hydrant, and was unconscious for a time, but seems to be recovering nicely from the accident. H. F. Downing fell on the sidewalk near his home and received numerous bruises, but no broken bones, as was at first reported.

News Notes
Miss Alie Parks, of Springfield, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. R. A. walter and family.
Edwin McDonald and A. W. Morse were Springfield visitors Wednesday where they attended a School of Instruction for Kiwanis members.

I.S.D. Tigers Dump Bath-Lynchburg At Ashland Tournament 29-26

Murrayville and Feitshans Will Invade Local Courts For Cage Features Tonight

Tiger will burn brightly under the hollers of the heating plants of two local gymnasiums tonight when Murrayville high comes here for a tussle with Routt high on the Liberty Hall court, and Feitshans high of Springfield invades the David Prince gymnasium for a game with the Jacksonville high Crimsons.

The two games, expected to be features when they were booked, remain in the expected status. Routt high's excellent showing against Illinois school for the last week, and Jacksonville high's high scoring victory over Franklin and other teams on the tiffs up near the top of the list in customer interest.

Murrayville last week barged into the finals of the annual Winchester tournament before being clipped, gain by White Hall, which this year was two of the players that won Murrayville a district championship last year. Routt showed a new high scoring speed against the Tigers and should be able to match shots with the Snowdons. Two games, beginning at seven and eight o'clock, are scheduled.

Feitshans ran last in a field of three seeking the Springfield city basketball championship, but Leo Duke's charges have shown a lot of real basketball this year. Only six more home games are listed on the J. H. S. schedule, three of which are with Channah, Waverly, and Jerseyville. Ashland also will invade Jacksonville next week.

Routt has another engagement carded for the week-end, journeying to Quincy where they will meet the next semester Quincy high team. Quincy played its second game of the first semester against the Rockets and gave them a terrific bumping over the basketball road, but with three men of that quiet becoming ineligible at the end of first semester, the Rockets will face almost an entirely new set-up.

Illness Becomes Fear
Illness, brought on by the cold wave, is becoming almost as serious a menace as opposing basketball teams to records. Coupled with that is the threat of further postponements of games because of snow storms and inclement weather, tending to whip some games completely off the line.

NOTICE
Mrs. Henry Schall's Public Sale has been postponed until January 28.

Spill Lynnville 44-24 To Stay In Front; Smiths And Chevies Win

Swifts Packers maintained their lead in the Y.M.C.A. basketball league last night at the David Prince gymnasium, defeating Lynnville 44-24 to 24. Smith Index and the Chevies remained in the race for a split title by winning their games from the Merchants and Playboys.

Swifts and Smiths will meet in the crucial game of the first round next week. These two teams postponed their scheduled opener, and have rescheduled it for next week, probably Thursday night.

Games went according to dope last night, with the Chevies rallying in the second quarter to take a lead away from the Playboys and then go on to win 33 to 21, while the league's leading scorer, George Welborn, was adding 16 more points to his total. Smiths had a run with the Merchants, holding them scoreless in the second and fourth quarters to win 32 to 21.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York.—Boston writers are likening Big Bill Tilden to Babe Ruth. Jack Dempsey has lost none of the old glamour—he was almost mobbed by admirers when he popped into Chicago for a social visit.

W. A. Benswanger, president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, formerly was a music critic of note. . . and James Mulvey, vice-president of the Dodgers, doubles as a movie exec at $400 per week.

Eddie Ainsworth, the old catcher, is tuning up his pipes for another season of umpiring in the Southern Association. . . Wild Bill Mehlhorn has regained his long lost putting touch and is red hot on the coast.

When you ask Mrs. Helen Willis Moody if she'll play in this year's nationals, she puts in the W. K. poker face—but if you can get odds she will not, grab 'em. . . Ernie Lanigan, the International League's demon press agent, was baseball's first real statistician. . . Although only 27, Mel Ott has just signed his twelfth major league contract.

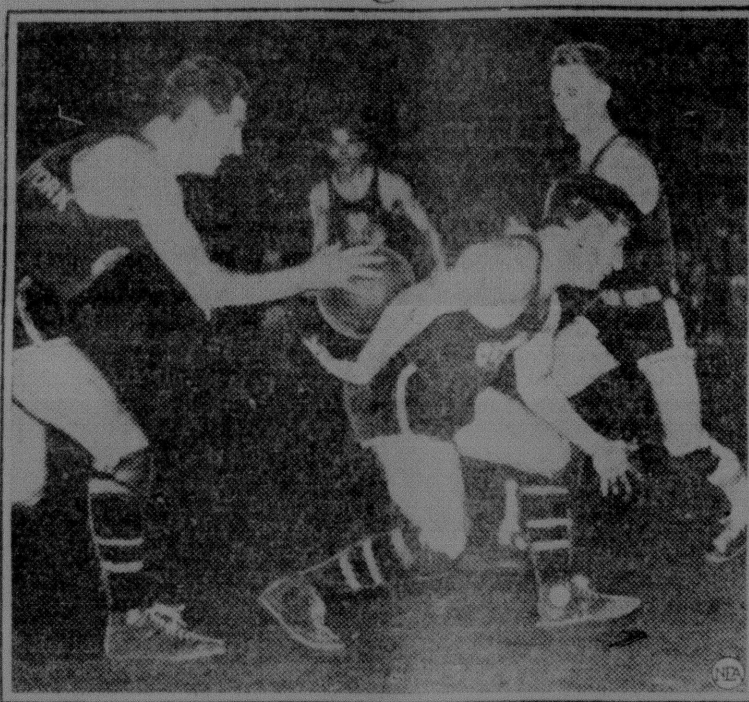

Satchel Peet Carnera is back from Italy, looking for set-ups. . . Mike Kelly of Minneapolis says 1936 will be baseball's best year since 1929. . . here's hoping. . . Clark Griffith must believe so, too, with a $500,000 prize tag on Buddy Myers. . . New York scribbles can't stop talking about what would have happened if Charlie Retzlaff had landed that first right he tossed at Emballer Louis.

George Perry, who press agents for the Yanks, is an old vaudeville song and dance man and always helps the baseball writers polish up the skits for their annual dinner. . . Looks like Wally Berger is condemned to spend another season with the Braves. . . This is the open season for holdouts—but where are they?

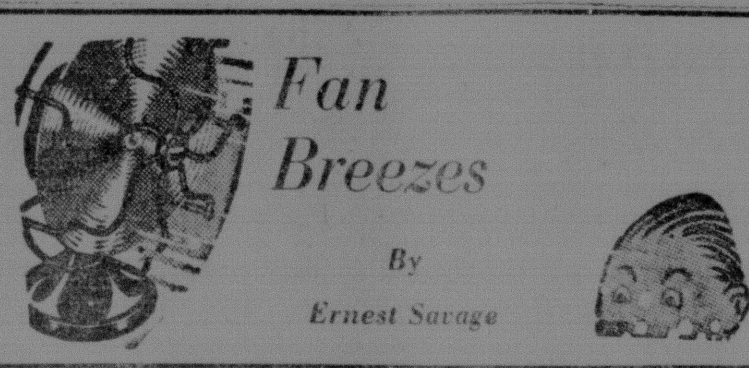

Franklin is showing a lot of interest in the students that will enroll in his high school. Once a week the eighth grade students of the country schools are invited to come in to the Franklin gym and use the court. The idea is that when they come into high school, they will know something more about a basketball than the fact that it bounces.

Eddie Rolan, Michigan State forward, has probably one of the unique luck pieces of the country. It's an old bad caster he has had since he was a student in Buchanan, Mich., high school. He puts the charm on the scorer's table when he goes into the game, and it stays there until the game is over.

Celtics' Sleight of Hand

Nat Hickey, forward, lays the ball on the back of little Davey Banks, guard, as the famous New York Celtics beat the Bostonians, 45-31, in a ninth riot in Chattanooga. Boo-Goo Bigger, home team guard, dashes in to break it up.

The New York Celtics, annually the strongest basketball team that can be assembled from the white players, are making their annual swing through the south under the sponsorship of Kate Smith, radio songbird.

These men play basketball but five months of the year, but during that time, haul down from $5,000 to $8,000. Their squad this year is composed of six players. Dutch Dehnert, a veteran of 18 years, Joe Lopez, 15 years veteran, Nat Hickey, 14 years on the courts, Davey Banks, the baitman of the squad and a player for 13 years, Pat Herlihy and Paul Birch are the regulars. Birch is the only first year man on the squad, coming to the Celtics from Duquesne where he rated all-American honors.

Despite the new three second rule, the Celtics often go into their favorite pivot-post play in tight games and really go to town with fast passing.

They were scheduled to show here last year, but had to give up their schedule combat with the New York Renaissance team because of injuries.

The Renaissance are making Central Illinois during the coming week, opening at Springfield Sunday.

V. E. Moore, coach of the CCC team, is in the market for some basketball games. They've booked a pair with the Alsey Backhaws, and are looking for some other competition.

The CCC boys are using the Illinois College court for practice sessions once a week. Moore has a neat working aggregation coming along, too.

This is one time of the year when most of the sports followers wish they were baseball critics. It would be almost time to be heading for the southland and a bit of sunshine.

Sports writers have been recalling that Dan McGuinn, who died the other day, went down to Vanderbilt to look over a coaching job there, and remained there for 30 years.

Because of the shake-up in the Illinois Valley conference this year, White Hall high is without a game for this Friday night. They were scheduled to play at Pleasant Hill, but when the conference was split into two divisions they gave up their game to Winchester. Winchester thanked them for the shift by scheduling a game with them for Saturday night, so that the White Hall team would have a game during the week. Now it looks as if the Wildcats will provide White Hall some of their toughest opposition.

White Hall's record is the only one of central Illinois teams with the exception of Cahoon of Springfield, which will compare with Jacksonville high. White Hall has lost but one game this far, and that was to Murrayville in Murrayville's gym.

Pittsfield's basketball fans are looking ahead to the game there Saturday night when Bill Strickland, former Indian coach, brings his Macomb quiet down there for a game. Strickland coached a few of the boys on this year's team before he went to Macomb a couple years ago.

Charles Wankel was among those transacting business in the city yesterday from Virginia.

Walter Pearmeyhouse of the Lynnville neighborhood was a caller in the city yesterday.

Alsey And Roodhouse Win In Tournament

Other Two Grade School Teams Fail To Appear And Forfeits Ordered

Scores Last Night
Alsey 14; Kampsville 12.
Roodhouse 35; South Jacksonville 7.
Bluffs 2; Chapin 0 (forfeit).
Hardin 2; Hillview 0 (forfeit).

Games Today
7 p. m.—Alsey vs. Hardin.
8 p. m.—Bluffs vs. Roodhouse.

Alsey, Jan. 23—Alsey and Roodhouse played their way into the semi-finals, and Hardin and Bluffs were awarded a place in the semi-finals, when their opponents in the Alsey Tournament failed to appear here tonight for the first games of the grade school team meeting.

Alsey had a tussle with Kampsville before entering the semi-finals, winning out by a 14 to 12 score after a thrilling game. Roodhouse's tall team had its own way with the South Jacksonville midgets 35 to 7.

Cold forced postponement of the games Wednesday night, and six of the eight teams showed up for the round scheduled for tonight. Semi-finals will be played Friday night and the finals are scheduled for Saturday night.

Wheat Values
Rule HigherBy John P. Boughan,
Associated Press Market Editor.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Despite forecasts of rising temperatures and of snow, indicating that worst effects of the cold wave were at end, wheat values today ruled higher.

Upturns reached new top figures on the present movement of wheat prices, but reactions at times nearly wiped out gains. Unusual curtailment of receipts attributed partly to widespread cold and partly to death of rural supplies did much to give strength to the market.

Wheat closed firm, 1-1/2 above yesterday's finish, May $1.00-1.01, corn unchanged to a lower, May 89-1/2, oats unchanged to 1 lower, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.

Only one carload of wheat arrived in Chicago, and receipts at other leading centers were reduced to a material extent. Some increase of buying power was associated with the fact that prices have held stubbornly for several days, and that liquidation the previous few weeks had been extensive. Another bullish factor was a rise of British exchange, but this proved transient.

Beauchamp traders asserted prevalent extreme cold was not without a favorable aspect—namely, likelihood of important destruction of insects. Predictions were current the chinch bug brood would be much less, and Hessian fly activities the coming season would be checked. Reports, however, indicated sub-zero temperatures did not extend to southern sections of the domestic wheat belt where there is not an adequate snow cover.

'Big Salary Book' Most Widely Read in Capital

Far more popular than any "best seller" is this book, which can't be bought at any price and is the most eagerly read volume in Washington. This "buddle" being only one of scores seen every day over its pages. There is only one copy of this book and it lists every corporation employee whose salary is $15,000 a year or more. Sucker list salesmen are especially interested in its contents. The book cannot be removed from the House Ways and Means Committee hearing room and no photostatic copies can be made from it.

Aviation Issues
Climb Steeply

By Frank MacMillen

Associated Press Financial Writer
New York, Jan. 23.—(P)—Aviation issues climbed steeply today in the stock market, along with mines and a wide variety of industrials and rails.

Numerous new highs for several years were chalked up in the most active dealings in several days. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks, up 4 of a point at 38.3, was the best level since Sept. 2, 1931. The 15 rails in the compilation scored a new 1935-36 top of 33.4, up 7 of a point.

The rise in mining shares went hand in hand with the usual Wall Street talk of new Washington moves in regard to silver and gold. After trading hours treasury officials were reported to have denied any move to increase the price of silver shortly to $1 an ounce.

Another touch of inflation sentiment was introduced as unconfirmed reports circulated in bond rooms regarding the establishment of an open market for gold.

With the possibility of monetary developments against the subject of discussion leading foreign monies shot ahead against the dollar in the foreign exchange market. The pound sterling ended more than 2 cents higher at 84.98. French francs went above parity, up .021 of a cent at 6.54 cents, and guilders and Swiss francs were strong.

Turnover in the stock exchange was 2,937,970 shares, compared with 2,134,610 shares in the previous session. The ticker lagged a little behind transactions on one or two occasions.

Cattle 2,000; calves 100; few steers steady to strong; instances a little higher but very uneven and some closing sales not as brisk as Wednesday; all cattle sharply higher for week but price levels regarded as fictitious following severe storm and starvation receipts; largely 8.00-11.00 market; fully 50 over Monday; no prime weighty steers here; best yearlings 13.25 these scaling 950 pounds; heifers strong to 25 higher and cows scarce, strong; meager supply bulls and vealers also bringing firm prices.

Sheep 4,000; fat lambs closing active, mostly 25 higher; yearlings also strong or weights considered; sheep strong but market on aged offerings supported only by short supply; good to choice 85-101 pounds lambs 10.50-75; bulk at outside; some held higher; 111 pound yearlings 8.50; desirable aged ewes upward to 5.00 and 5.50.

WHEAT PRODUCTION

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—(P)—Canadian wheat production in 1935 was placed at 277,339 bushels in the Dominion bureau of statistics, third estimate of the area, yield and value of field crops, issued today.

The figure was 3,368,000 bushels above the second estimate made last November and 17,490,000 above the production in 1934.

CASH GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Cash wheat was unchanged today. Seaboard ad-vice said a fair Canadian export business was reported again overnight with sales in all positions estimated upwards of 600,000 bushels and further good interest indicated. Receipts were 1 car; shipping sales 30,000 bushels.

Corn was steady to 1 cent higher. Receipts were 32 cars; shipping sales 20,000 bushels; booked to arrive 6,000 bushels.

Oats were unchanged to 1 cent higher. Receipts were 15 cars; shipping sales 14,000 bushels.

Hog Prices Are Sharply Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Livestock receipts today were reduced to the lowest volume in months because of the cold wave and as a result prices were sharply higher.

Hogs advanced 25 cents to a top of $10.50 per hundredweight, highest price in three months. Fat lambs gained 1 cent and cattle were steady to strong. The trade had only 4,000 fresh hogs, 2,000 cattle and 4,000 sheep, a total only a fourth as large as receipts a week ago.

Reports of improved demand for meat stimulated by the cold weather were strengthening to the trade but the supply curtailment was the important factor. Hogs, which have gained 30 cents since the first of the week, sold around $10.25 to $10.50 for better grades. Some were taken off the market when the sellers were unable to get higher prices.

All cattle were sharply higher than a week ago but the level of prices was regarded as fictitious because of the small supply and cold weather. Most sales were made at $8 to $11, which was fully 50 cents above Monday's level, there were no prime weighty steers here. The best yearlings topped at $12.25.

The bulk of best fat lambs sold at $10.60 to $10.75.

All Counties Push
Road Improvements

WPA Programs Started in All Counties Outside of Chicago Area

Farm to market road improvement programs are now operating in every county in Illinois with the exception of Cook county with grants of approximately $16,000,000 from the Works Progress Administration and sponsors, contributions of $9,000,000 from counties, townships, villages and road districts.

The extent of the program is revealed in a report on the farm-to-market projects released yesterday by the office of Robert J. Dunham, state WPA administrator. The report states that "the program, as being carried forward by WPA, calls for the transformation of nearly 12,000 miles of unimproved secondary roads into 'year-round' improved highways. In addition to surfacing work is done in many places on grading, widening, straightening and drainage.

The present program under WPA direction, the report points out, is the first concentrated effort made in years to place a large part of the rural population of the state on all-weather roads. Approximately 36,000 family heads formerly on state relief rolls are receiving security wages in the execution of the program.

BOY INJURES HEAD

BY FALL ON TRACK

Thomas Comerford, 3-year-old boy of Bluffs, sustained a severe scalp wound when he fell on the ice and struck his head on a Weibach rail. He was removed to a Jacksonville hospital in an unconscious condition, but regained consciousness within a few hours. His condition improved to such an extent that he was able to return home the following day.

LIVESTOCK ESTIMATES

Associated Press Financial Writer

New York, Jan. 23.—(A)—Aviation issues climbed steeply today in the stock market, along with mines and a wide variety of industrials and railroads. Numerous new highs for several years were chalked up in the most active dealings in several days.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks, up 6 of a point at 58.3, was the best level since Sept. 2, 1931. The 15 rails in the compilation scored a new 1935-36 top of 34.4, up 7 of a point.

The rise in mining shares went hand in hand with the usual Wall Street talk of new Washington moves in regard to silver and gold. After trading hours treasury officials were reported to have denied any move to increase the price of silver shortly to $1 an ounce.

Another touch of inflation sentiment was introduced as unconfirmed reports circulated in board rooms regarding the establishment on an open market for gold.

With the possibility of monetary developments against the subject of discussion leading foreign monies short ahead against the dollar in the foreign exchange market. The pound sterling climbed more than 2 cents higher at parity, up 331 of a cent at 6.644 cents, and gold and Swiss francs were strong.

Turnover in the stock exchange was

2,937,970 shares, compared with 2,154-

610 shares in the previous session. The ticker lagged a little behind transactions on one or two occasions.

New AAA Hits Snag at Hearing

Republicans Refuse to Sit on Committee; Chairman Says
He Will Ask for Some Changes in Measure.

McNARY DISSATISFIED

Washington—(AP)—Serious friction over the new administration farm program developed in the senate agriculture committee today when Republicans refused to serve on a subcommittee to study the soil conservation plan and Senator Smith (D., S.C.) reluctantly accepted the chairmanship.

Smith, who is chairman of the full agriculture committee but who deferred to Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) to introduce the soil-improving subsidy measure in the senate, told reporters after a closed committee meeting.

"I'll support this bill when it conforms to the constitution," Smith said. "I am not a member of the committee, and I am not a member of the subcommittee, and I am not a member of the committee to study the plan and report back to the full committee by Saturday."

The subcommittee, composed only of Democrats—Smith, Bankhead, Murphy, Iowa; Pope, Idaho; and Hatch, New Mexico—immediately went into session and decided to call Secretary Wallace and Chester Davis, who administered AAA, for examination at another closed session later in the day.

Neighbors of King Break Police Lines When Body Departs

King Edward Assists Mother
at Station After Long Walk from Estate

(Copyright, 1935, the A.P.)

Sandringham, England—The neighbors of King George V broke police lines in an uncontrollable demonstration of grief today as the body of their late friend and monarch was started toward London.

It seemed as though the country folk, who had known their king as a kindly friend, could not bear to let him go.

His body had been borne carefully with simple military state, on a gun carriage from Sandringham church to Welferton station.

The new king, Edward VIII, walked the entire two-and-one-half-mile journey behind the coffin.

The weather was cold, but a morning sun shone on King Edward's sandy hair. He was carrying his hat in his hand. He appeared tired, worn, and pale.

Beside the king walked his three tall brothers, the dukes of York, Kent, and Gloucester. Their walk was silent. All seemed stricken with grief.

The widowed Mary, now the dowager queen, bore up well. She was heavily veiled and it was impossible to see her face.

The new king, himself, assisted his mother through the waiting room of the royal station and helped her board the train.

The dead king's body was placed in a black coach striped with purple—the royal funeral car—which was seventh in the line of the ten-car train.

As it was carried to the coach, drums rolled out a funeral dirge, reverberating the echoing through the forest of sweet-smelling firs and pines stretching away from the rear of the station.

Then the deep silence, which lasted for ten minutes after the party had arrived, was broken by the labored puffing of the engine as the train began to pull away.

The mourning spectators began a mighty surge. The police were pushed aside, their lines broken. Hundreds of persons dashed down upon the tracks; others climbed nearby rooftops; all did their utmost to watch that black and purple coach as long as possible.

The train gathered speed. It rounded a curve. King George was gone.
Before the start for London, a private memorial service was held in the little Sandringham church.

BULLDOGGING POLICE

SERGEANT STOPS BULL

Omaha—(AP)—Police Sergeant Ronald McDonald was a former cowboy but he had no horse to aid him when a steed escaped from a truck and charged pedestrians. He swung a lasso from the running board of a squad car and missed. The steer smashed a fender, dashed into a garage and scattered mechanics. Mc-Donald pursued afoot, and in desperation bulldogged the animal, rodeo style. It was delivered to the stockyards.

TO REPRESENT SOVIET

Moscow, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Communistic Soviet Russia named men today to represent her at the funeral of King George.

They were Maxim Litvinoff, commissioner for foreign affairs, who is now in Geneva, and Mikhail Tukhachev-sky, vice commissioner for war and youngest of the Soviet's recently created marshals. The ambassador to London, Ivan Maiski, also will be in the delegation.

George Burmeister of near Orleans station was a caller in the city yesterday.

The STRANGE CASE of JULIA CRAIG

by Nard Jones Copyright NEA 1935

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JULIA CRAIG, pretty young woman, in a quiet, level voice which was only a brittle surface over the anger beneath her words.

"Mr. Woodford, I want one thing understood: I came along as an entertainer to sing for your guests. At least, that was my understanding of the invitation. Perhaps I'm being a fool but I've got to ask the question. Is it your understanding, too?"

Woodford laughed easily. "Of course it is, Julia. I'm simply extending your engagement. No genuine entertainer ever objected to that."

Julia nodded, wordless. But she was thinking that never again would she be able to act as George Woodford's secretary. It just wouldn't work out. She had lost her job at Woodford and Brooks as surely as if she had been discharged.

"But," she heard Woodford going on in his easy, persuasive voice, "just because you're an entertainer is no reason why you shouldn't enjoy yourself on this trip. The party's too small for any stiff distinctions. As a matter of fact, Julia, the rest of them think that you came along as well, they think you came along with me."

"I was afraid of that."
Woodford laughed. "Really, there's no reason to be so disturbed about it, Julia. Nash and Royal—the two girls—are broad-minded people. They're been around."

Julia turned upon him.
"Yes," she said quickly, unable to hold her anger any longer. "They —they've been around. This sort of thing is their racket. But it's not mine. I've always worked for a living, and I always expect to work for a living. I—I'm not looking for any breaks!"

"Julia..." Woodford came closer, put his hand on her arm.
"Julia, I'm afraid you've got me wrong. I was only trying to avoid embarrassment for you. I'll tell you the truth. If Mrs. Joseph knew you were about simply to sing for your supper she'd treat you shamefully."

"I'd prefer she knew," said Julia. "What Mrs. Joseph thinks of me isn't important."

WOODFORD was about to answer, but at that moment the door of the main cabin opened and Royal Nesbitt joined them. "I owe this young lady an apology," he told Woodford.

"How's that, Royal?" asked the host.

"I promised to put her in touch with someone who'd give her a chance in one of the night clubs," Julia laughed. "You really shouldn't feel badly about it, Mr.
Nesbitt. I've had that happen to me before." She gave Woodford a sidelong glance, was maliciously pleased to note his discomfort.

"I meant it, though," Nesbitt assured her. "The fact is, I've been pretty busy. Then this invitation of George's came along, and I couldn't refuse. But the moment we get back in town I'll set the wheels turning." He looked at her.
"How's Amy?"

It was the first time he had men-

FARM FOLKS TAKE FOWL WORRIES TO FARM-HOME WEEK

Urbana, Ill.—Farmers and their wives can take their troubles with them when they go to Farm and Home Week, January 13 to 17, at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

At least this will be true in the case of poultry disease troubles. One of the special services of the week will be a poultry disease clinic at which specialists will autopsy chickens, turkeys and other sick fowl brought in by farm flock owners and make recommendations for overcoming the trouble. Birds brought to the clinic should be alive and typically affected with the disease if possible.

The clinic will be held at 2 p. m.
Monday, January 13, as one of the first events of Farm and Home Week.
Consequently any birds which farmers or their wives take to the clinic will be disposed of soon after their arrival. The clinic will be held in the animal pathology laboratory and will be in charge of Drs. E. H. Berger and J. P. Torrey, animal pathologists of the Illinois State Department of Agriculture, who are stationed at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois to assist with diagnostic work.

Poultry now returns about 10 per cent, or more than 27 millions annually, of the cash income of Illinois farmers, but diseases such as will be brought out at the clinic keep this return from being even higher. During the past year poultry maladies of one kind or another have caused such serious losses in flocks of the state that 1,800 birds were submitted to the animal pathology laboratory for autopsy.

Just now colds and roup are among the worst of the various poultry diseases, but there are more than a half dozen others that take a heavy toll.
One of these is tuberculosis. Farmers who have chickens affected with this disease speak of them as "going light."

Other costly diseases which will be dealt with in the clinic are fowl paralysis, cholera, typhoid, chicken pox, infectious bronchitis, coccidiosis and internal and external parasites.

Poultry and Eggs Profitable Produce

Raising Chickens for early marketing is usually a profitable venture. True, it requires some work, but it pays. To get the best out of it, an early start should be made.

Maintaining flocks for the production of eggs also is profitable, and this too requires care and work in order to produce the egg that brings the better prices.

New AAA Hits Snag at Hearing

Republicans Refuse to Sit on Committee; Chairman Says He Will Ask for Some Changes in Measure.

McNARY DISSATISFIED

Washington—(AP)—Serious friction over the new administration farm program developed in the senate agriculture committee today when Republicans refused to serve on a subcommittee to study the soil conservation plan and Senator Smith (D., S.C.) reluctantly accepted the chairmanship.

Smith, who is chairman of the full agriculture committee but who deferred to Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) to introduce the soil-improving subsidy measure in the senate, told reporters after a closed committee meeting:

"I'll support this bill when it conforms to the constitution."

Smith said Senators McNary, of Oregon, the Republican leader, and Norris (R., Neb.) declined to serve on the subcommittee of five which was named to study the plan and report back to the full committee by Saturday.

The subcommittee, composed only of Democrats—Smith, Bankhead, Murphy, Iowa; Pope, Idaho; and Hatch, New Mexico—immediately went into session and decided to call Secretary Wallace and Chester Davis, who administered AAA, for examination at another closed session later in the day.

Concurrently, the house agriculture committee, at a closed meeting on the new legislation, decided to hear Davis tomorrow. Chairman Jones (D., Tex.) said "there will be some changes" in the bill but declined to forecast what they might be. There were indications language might be added to specify that the present measure is to be followed by a permanent program based on state cooperation.

Neighbors of King Break Police Lines When Body Departs

King Edward Assists Mother at Station After Long Walk from Estate

(Copyright, 1936, the A.P.)

Sandringham, England—The neighbors of King George V broke police lines in an uncontrollable demonstration of grief today as the body of their late friend and monarch was started toward London.

It seemed as though the country folk, who had known their king as a kindly friend, could not bear to let him go.

His body had been borne carefully, with simple military state, on a gun carriage from Sandringham church to Wolferton station.

The new king, Edward VIII, walked the entire two-and-one-half-mile journey behind the coffin.

The weather was cold, but a morning sun shone on King Edward's sandy hair. He was carrying his hat in his hand. He appeared tired, worn, and pale.

Beside the king walked his three half brothers, the dukes of York, Kent, and Gloucester. Their walk was silent. All seemed stricken with grief.

The widowed Mary, now the dowager queen, bore up well. She was heavily veiled and it was impossible to see her face.

The new king himself, assisted his mother through the waiting room of the royal station and helped her board the train.

The dead king's body was placed in a black coach striped with purple—the royal funeral car—which was seventh in the line of the ten-car train.

As it was carried to the coach, drums rolled out a funeral dirge, reverberating the echoing through the forest of sweet-smelling firs and pines stretching away from the rear of the station.

Then the deep silence, which lasted for ten minutes after the party had arrived, was broken by the labored puffing of the engine as the train began to pull away.

The mourning spectators began a mighty surge. The police were pushed aside, their lines broken. Hundreds of persons dashed down upon the tracks; others climbed nearby rooftops; all did their utmost to watch that black and purple coach as long as possible.

The train gathered speed. It rounded a curve. King George was gone.

BULLDOGGING POLICE SERGEANT STOPS BULL

Omaha—(P)—Police Sergeant Ronald McDonald was a former cowboy but he had no horse to aid him when a steed escaped from a truck and charged pedestrians. He swung a lasso from the running board of a squad car and missed. The steer smashed a fender, dashed into a garage and scattered mechanics. McDonald pursued afoot, and in desperation bulldogged the animal, rodeo style. It was delivered to the stockyards.

TO REPRESENT SOVIET
Moscow, Jan. 23.—(P)—Communist Soviet Russia named men today to represent her at the funeral of King George.

They were Maxim Litvinoff, commissar for foreign affairs, who is now in Geneva, and Mikhail Tukachevsky, vice commissar for war and youngest of the Soviet's recently created marshals. The ambassador to London, Ivan Maiski, also will be in the delegation.

George Burmeister of near Orleans station was a caller in the city yesterday.

The STRANGE CASE of JULIA CRAIG

by Nard Jones

Copyright NEA 1936

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JULIA CRAIG, pretty young secretary to GEORGE WOODFORD of the law firm of Woodford and Brooks, is destined to become a night club singer. Julia shares an apartment with AMY SANDERS.

PETER KEMP, also employed by Woodford and Brooks, is in love with Julia, but he discourages his attentions. He gives her a letter of introduction to HENRY LAMB, band leader, but in the letter, asks Lamb not to give her a job. Julia discovers this and tells Peter everything is over between them.

Woodford tells Julia he is giving a party on his yacht and asks her to come along to sing for his guests. She agrees, but others on the yacht include CINTRIA LEE, divorcée; MR. ROYAL, widower; HENRY NASH, and ROYAL NASH. BIFF.

Woodford overhears a conversation indicating that the yacht trip is to be much longer than a weekend.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER VIII

When CINTRIA Lee had finished her cigarette and returned to the cabin, Julia stayed outside, staring at the black water rushing by the graceful hull of the Wood Nymph. Presently she noticed the red spot of a cigar glowing in the darkness, and recognized the familiar figure of George Woodford.

"You've made quite a hit with the boys and girls," he said. "I'm glad I brought you along as much as any of us. A pretty young woman like you deserves every break in the world. And I've a surprise for you, too."

"Yes?" Her question was freighted with trepidation.

"You don't have to be back at the office Monday. I've wired them it's all right."

"But I—I don't understand."

"You're going to enjoy yourself on a real cruise, Julia. Not just a weekend." He stopped before Julia's frigid silence. "I would have told you earlier," he went on. "But the fact is, we really did plan only a weekend cruise at first. Then the night we came aboard Nash insisted he wanted to get in some hunting. So we decided on the spur of the moment to put in at Evergreen Island. I've a very decent cabin there. You'll love the place."

"But suppose I don't care to go?"

"I'm afraid that couldn't change our plans now," Woodford told her. "Surely you wouldn't spoil the fun for the rest of the party by asking me to turn the Wood Nymph back to the city now?"

JULIA did not reply at once. She looked out over the rail for a long moment—then answered:

Woodford in a quiet, level voice which was only a brittle surface over the anger beneath her words.

"Mr. Woodford, I want one thing understood: I came along as an entertainer—to sing for your guests. At least, that was my understanding of the invitation. Perhaps I'm being a fool, but I've got to ask this question. Is it your understanding, too?"

Woodford laughed easily. "Of course it is, Julia! I'm simply extending your engagement. No genuine entertainer ever objected to that!"

Julia nodded, wordless. But she was thinking that never again would she be able to act as George Woodford's secretary. It just wouldn't work out. She had lost her job at Woodford and Brooks as surely as if she had been discharged.

"But," she heard Woodford going on in his easy, persuasive voice, "just because you're an entertainer is no reason why you shouldn't enjoy yourself on this trip. The party's too small for any silly distinctions. As a matter of fact, Julia, the rest of them think that you came along as—well, they think you came along with me."

"I was afraid of that."

Woodford laughed. "Really, there's no reason to be so disturbed about it, Julia. Nash and Royal—and the two girls—are broad-minded people. They've been around."

Furiously Julia turned upon him. "Yes," she said quickly, unable to hold her anger any longer. "They have been around. This sort of thing is their racket. But it's not mine. I've always worked for a living, and I always expect to work for a living. I—I'm not looking for any breaks!"

"Julia . . ." Woodford came closer, put his hand on her arm, "Julia, I'm afraid you've got me wrong. I was only trying to avoid embarrassment for you. I'll tell you the truth. If Mrs. Joseph knew you were aboard simply to sing for your supper she'd treat you shamefully."

"I'd prefer she knew," said Julia. "What Mrs. Joseph thinks of me isn't important."

WOODFORD was about to answer, but at that moment the door of the main cabin opened and Royal Nesbitt joined them. "I owe this young lady an apology," he told Woodford.

"How's that, Royal?" asked the host.

"I promised to put her in touch with someone who'd give her a chance in one of the night clubs."

Julia laughed. "You really shouldn't feel badly about it, Mr. Nesbitt. I've had that happen to me before." She gave Woodford a sidelong glance, was maliciously pleased to note his discomfort.

"I meant it, though," Nesbitt assured her. "The fact is, I've been pretty busy. Then this invitation of George's came along, and I couldn't refuse. But the moment we got back in town I'll set the wheels turning." He looked at her. "How's Amy?"

It was the first time he had mentioned Amy Sanders. Amused that he was asking now, out of CINTRIA's hearing, Julia told him that Amy was in excellent health and her usual bright spirits.

"She's a grand girl," said Nesbitt.

"The best there is."

Nesbitt cleared his throat nervously, turned to Woodford and asked him an irrelevant question about the Wood Nymph. Julia slipped into the darkness and made her way toward her stateroom on the other side of the yacht. As she passed the pilot house she caught a glimpse of Bakely at the wheel, his face illuminated eerily in the soft green light from the binnacle. Acting on an impulse, she opened the door.

"May I come in?"

Bakely turned his head from the wheel. Touching his cap, he said, "Certainly, Miss Craig."

JULIA leaned against the chart table, watching Captain Bakely. She saw herself reflected in the forward windows of the pilot house.

"I understand we're headed for a place called Evergreen Island?"

Bakely nodded. "Yes, That's the course we're on."

"Is it far?"

"About 14 hours from here," Bakely told her. "Evergreen is one of a string of islands, and Mr. Woodford has a hunting lodge there."

"Is there anything else on the island?"

"No . . ." Bakely shook his head. "We'll be pretty well secluded up there."

Julia laughed easily. "Suppose something happened and we wanted to get in touch with the city?"

"That's not likely. But the vessel is equipped with radiotelephone."

"I see . . ." Julia moved from the chart table and nearer to the wheel where Bakely stood. "I'd like to see the radiotelephone some time."

Bakely looked at her. "That room's always locked, Miss Craig. Mr. Woodford doesn't allow any messages to go through without his permission."

"Well, I suppose I'll have to get his permission," she sighed. "I think I'll drift along to bed now. Good night, Captain Bakely."

"Good night, Miss Craig . . ."

City Council Adopts Resolution Stating Election Was Carried

Adoption of a resolution declaring that the election on the three projects submitted to the voters in the special election of January 21 was carried on all three propositions, featured the activities of the city council at its regular meeting last night, attended by all of the members and the mayor despite the cold. Minor matters regarding the payment of bills was the main topic of argument.

The resolution declaring the election in favor of all of the propositions submitted declared the first proposition carried by a vote of 4476 to 1480, the second proposition by a vote of 4484 to 1476, and the third proposition by a vote of 4467 to 1493. There were a few minor changes in the official canvass made last night and the precinct report published the day following the election.

Funeral Services For Archie Hester Held At Glasgow

Rites For Fire Victim Are Largely Attended: Other News Notes

Glasgow, Jan. 23.—Funeral services, largely attended in spite of the sub-zero weather, were held at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Archie Hester, who succumbed early Monday morning from serious burns received Sunday evening while he was pouring fuel oil from a can onto a stove fire in his home. The services were conducted by Rev. R. L. Schwab of Winchester. A choir composed of Dr. and Mrs. Webster, Miss Betty Leach and Ralph Jones with Miss Ethel McGee at the piano sang "Rock of Ages," "In the Garden," and "The Old Rugged Cross."

The many beautiful floral offerings were cared for by the Mesdames Lee Fletcher, Jos. Sanderson and Eida Young and Misses Helen Clanton, Charlotte Northrop and Juanita Jackson. Casket bearers were fellow members of the local Pahaia Tribe, No. 368 of the Improved Order of Red Men, namely: Edward Cumby, George Hayes, Dale Blair and William Howard and Randall Killebrew. Interment was made in the family lot in the Glasgow cemetery.

Program Postponed

The community program, that was to have been given in the M.W.A. Hall Wednesday night, has been postponed until next Wednesday, Jan. 29, on account of the present intensive cold wave. Same program.

Mission Saturday

The Ladies Mission Circle will meet Saturday afternoon at the Mrs. J. A. Young home with Miss Glenna Howard acting as assistant hostess. The devotional will be in charge of Mrs. John A. Wilson. The regular scheduled program will be carried out.

Personal News

Mrs. Earl Thurman and daughter left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in Browning.

Ruby Bryan, 15 year old son of Mrs. Ruth Bryan, who was accidentally shot by a 22 rifle while hunting last week, is reported slowly improving at the Passavant hospital.

W. C. Drummond, of Pittsfield, was calling on relatives and old friends here Tuesday morning.

Beal Cooter is up from Granite City on one of his hunting expeditions this week.

P. E. O. Chapter Of Greene Entertains

Chapter B. U. Has White Hall Members As Guests; News Notes

Roodhouse, Jan. 23.—The P. E. O. Chapter B. U. entertained 14 ladies from the White Hall, P. E. O. Chapter B. J. at a Ponder's Day program and a o'clock tea Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Merle Mackey. Mrs. Norma Martin and Mrs. Nina Smith presided. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Wilkinson and the seven girls who are doing active work in speech at High school were dressed in the various colors of the rainbow, representing the founders. They were Misses Celia Korich, Helen Whitworth, Ruby Steinhagen, Marguerite Beauchamp, Louise McLamar, Wills Garrison and Frances Sawyer. A candle lighting service was a very pretty part of the program.

Miss Gerry Fairback was hostess at her home to a group of girl friends on bridge at 7 p. m. Tuesday in honor of the birthday anniversary of Miss Aileen Casteel. Those enjoying the surprise party were: Misses Aileen Sprague, Reta Mae Shumaker, Kathryn McGinnis, Elaine Nebbergall, Ruth Vign, Peggy Bucklin, Betty Battershell, Justine Neal, Martha Ballard, the guest of honor Aileen Casteel and the hostess Gerry. The girls presented Aileen with a lovely gift.

FORUM ORGANIZED FOR LOCAL NEGROES

A Forum has been organized among the negroes of Jacksonville. Because of its scope it has been named the Peoples Forum. Its purpose is to afford intelligent informing and help and entertainment for all the people, especially the non-church going public, at an hour on the Lord's day, when the regular service is held at any church—4:30 to 5:20 p. m.

The place of meeting is the Methodist Episcopal church, Cox street at Farrell. J. Blaine Walker, minister. The Peoples Forum meets the 4th Sunday of each month. The second program is Sunday, Jan. 26th. The Warner sisters will sing. Mrs. Ida Mae speak and Charles Walker will review current events.

Franklin business visitors in Jacksonville yesterday included Earl Crawford.

Scott IERC Survey Issued On Thursday Shows 354 On Relief

Figures Show Half Are Eligible For WPA Projects; Winchester News

Winchester, Jan. 23.—According to an announcement made this evening by Scott County Relief Administrator, Guy R. Coddling, the survey of the Scott County relief case load as of January 18th, was completed today. The survey shows that of the 354 cases now on relief, there are 177 that have been certified to the Works Progress Administration but have not been assigned to WPA projects, 130 of which cannot be assigned because of old age or physical incapacity and 45 cases because they were not on the relief rolls between May 1, 1935 and November 1, 1935. There are two cases which cannot be certified for other reasons.

The survey also shows that there are 7 cases which are on WPA but are getting supplementary help because of the particular circumstances of their families. Included in the 177 cases which have been certified for WPA there are 54 cases who have not worked out their first semi-monthly work period. However these 54 cases will be closed by the relief office the 1st of February.

A. T. A. MEETS

The Winchester chapter of the Anti-Thief Association met in the O. B. Evans building 7:30 o'clock this evening. A large number of the members were in attendance and a large class of candidates were taken into the order. Following the work and business meeting of the lodge an oyster supper was served by the Royal Neighbors lodge.

Candidacy Announced

The candidacy of Norbert L. Hutchens, Winchester Attorney, for the Democratic nomination for States Attorney was announced here today. Mr. Hutchens has practiced law in this county for more than two years and was formerly a resident of Greene County. He is secretary of the Scott County Bar Association.

Teacher Frozen Trying To Walk From Stalled Car

Narrowly Escapes Death In Wednesday Cold; Ashland News

Ashland, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Walter McDonald, 50, of Petersburg, teacher of the Newmarville school, 10 miles north of Ashland, narrowly escaped death by freezing Wednesday. Her husband was taking her to school when his car became stalled in a snowdrift two miles from the school. She started to walk and having fallen the second time, was picked up by a WPA worker of the community.

She was taken to the home of Sam Monroe in Newmarville, in an unconscious condition, and both hands, feet and throat were frozen. Although suffering considerably, she was said to be recovering. A number of Ashland school children suffered frozen ears yesterday. L. D. Lewis, rural letter carrier, suffered frozen ears when he attempted to get his car out of a snowdrift near the home of Walker Thornley, north of Ashland. Both he and H. L. Lewis, another rural letter carrier of Ashland, had to abandon their attempts to deliver the mail. Numerous coal trucks were reported stalled on country roads, most of which were blocked by drifts. Unofficial report of 23 degrees below zero were given in Ashland Thursday.

News Notes

The following students of the Ashland Community High school held a perfect attendance record for the first semester: John D. Adams, Walter Dorsett, Bob Agnew, Edna May Evans, Raymond Allen, Rosemary Preitag, Lester Blakeman, Alberta Hager, Russell Blakeman, LeRoy Hager, Anna Mae Bryant, Lucille Hayes, Sidney Campbell, Lucy Hinds, Donald Devlin, Russell Hinds, Elliott Johnson, Mary Shirliff, Carroll Lewis, Florence Smith, Juanita Moore, Lola Tannahl, Glen Quinley, Janet Wankel, Mary Louise Reiter, Marjorie Wankel, Evelyn Rodgers, Reta Wankel, Walter Savary, Herschel Williamson, Louise Winner.

A number of Ashland people were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burns in Virginia Tuesday night when they entertained members of a bridge club at six o'clock dinner followed by three tables of bridge. High score factors were won by Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Voismier. Other Ashland guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald.

A tie of social events were also cancelled for the same reason.

James Albert Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen who recently moved to Ashland from Wellston, Oklahoma, has entered the Ashland High school as a sophomore. He had been a student of the Wellston Consolidated High school. Miss Tenny Savage, also a sophomore, has re-entered the High school, after spending the first semester at the New Crier Township High school at Winnetka, Ill.

Betty Allen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Allen, who has been ill from pneumonia, is improving at her home.

W. C. Stribling returned Wednesday night from a business trip in central Missouri.

Republicans Of Cook Split Group To Support Brooks

28 Committeemen Pledge For Chicagoan For Governor

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Supporters of Wayne H. Brooks, Chicago candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, staged a "coup d'etat" at a meeting of the Cook county Republican committee tonight to strengthen his candidacy.

They introduced and had passed a surprise resolution releasing the committee men from their former decision not to endorse officially any candidate unless he had the support of 80 per cent of the voting strength of the committee.

Then, being true agents, 28 of the 61 committeemen adjourned to another room in a (La Salle) loop hotel and pledged their support to Brooks.

Their combined voting strength was 155,338, more than a majority of the 366,127 Republican votes cast in Cook county in the 1934 primary.

The Harding-Moore-Weber committeemen who participated in the boom for Brooks claimed they had the support of a substantial majority of the committeemen.

After the excitement had died down, Brooks issued the following statement:

"I am not obligated nor committed to any group or faction. I am pledged to serve all of the people of this state faithfully and impartially.

"I am a candidate for governor and for no other office. My campaign already is in full swing and with the support that I already have from a majority of the Republican committeemen from Cook county and downstate I will do my utmost to harmonize and unite the Republican party."

AMERICAN LEGION OF MEREDOSIA HAS SOCIAL MEETING

Meredosia, Jan. 23.—Members of the American Legion and their families held their regular monthly social at the Legion cabin on Monday evening. The evening was spent playing cards, a tie of social events were also cancelled for the same reason.

James Albert Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen who recently moved to Ashland from Wellston, Oklahoma, has entered the Ashland High school as a sophomore. He had been a student of the Wellston Consolidated High school. Miss Tenny Savage, also a sophomore, has re-entered the High school, after spending the first semester at the New Crier Township High school at Winnetka, Ill.

Betty Allen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Allen, who has been ill from pneumonia, is improving at her home.

W. C. Stribling returned Wednesday night from a business trip in central Missouri.

HEMBROUGH CHILD PASSES AWAY AT PASSAVANT HOSPITAL

Neal Malone Hembrough, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hembrough, died at Passavant hospital yesterday evening. The remains were taken to the Gillingham Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held at one o'clock this afternoon at Asbury church in charge of Rev. Charles H. Hopper. Interment will be in the Asbury cemetery.

Medieval Pomp Proclaims Heir to England's Throne King

Traditional ceremonies handed down through a thousand years attend the succession of England's Prince of Wales to the throne. The Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal of Great Britain, attended by the Carter King of Arms, the York Herald, Somerset Herald and Pursuivants with Rouge Dragon, Rouge Croix and Blue Mantle, all dressed in medieval uniforms, were scheduled to assemble on the balcony of Friary Court in St. James Palace to proclaim Edward VIII king. The above picture, the only one known showing the reading of a royal proclamation, was taken in Friary Court on the occasion of the signing of the armistice in 1918.

Teacher Frozen Trying To Walk From Stalled Car

Narrowly Escapes Death In Wednesday Cold; Ashland News

Ashland, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Walter McDonald, 50, of Petersburg, teacher of the Newmarville school, 10 miles north of Ashland, narrowly escaped death by freezing Wednesday. Her husband was taking her to school when his car became stalled in a snowdrift two miles from the school. She started to walk and having fallen the second time, was picked up by a WPA worker of the community.

She was taken to the home of Sam Monroe in Newmarville, in an unconscious condition, and both hands, feet and throat were frozen. Although suffering considerably, she was said to be recovering. A number of Ashland school children suffered frozen ears yesterday. L. D. Lewis, rural letter carrier, suffered frozen ears when he attempted to get his car out of a snowdrift near the home of Walker Thornley, north of Ashland. Both he and H. L. Lewis, another rural letter carrier of Ashland, had to abandon their attempts to deliver the mail. Numerous coal trucks were reported stalled on country roads, most of which were blocked by drifts. Unofficial report of 23 degrees below zero were given in Ashland Thursday.

Funeral Services For J. F. Koester To Be Saturday

Native Of Morgan County Dies In Cass; Was Father Of Local Resident

Funeral services for John F. Koester, who died Monday near Beardstown, will be held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Methodist church in Beardstown. He was born in Morgan county 35 years ago, but has not been a resident here for many years.

Mr. Koester, widely known Cass farmer, died at 3 p. m. Monday in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Shelton Thornton near Beardstown.

The decedent, the son of John P. and Henrietta Tholen-Koester, was 85 years of age last December 6th. He was born in Morgan county, Dec. 6, 1850, on the Dunlap farm, and was united in marriage in March of 1876 to Miss Augusta Mann.

He followed the profession of farming all of his life, for many years near Beardstown, and for 25 years on a farm south of this city. He retired two years ago.

In 1862 his father died leaving him and his mother to rear seven small children. He grew to manhood on a farm near Beardstown and early united with the German M. E. church.

His wife died in November of 1898. Surviving are one son, John, Jr., of Browning, and five daughters: Mrs. Anna H. Werries of Jacksonville, Mrs. Nellie Tucker, Mrs. Mary Thornton, all of near here, Miss Nora Koester, Browning, and Miss Pauline Koester of this city. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. August Pfeiler of this city, a brother, William, in Oregon, a half sister, Mrs. Emma Pfeiler of Sterling, Kansas, and a half-brother, Fred Munkel of this city. He is also survived by twelve grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Two daughters and a son died in infancy.

At dawn Thursday 17 below, and up to noon thermometers were showing from zero to six below, although the sun was shining brightly.

News Notes

The L. M. I. club met Monday afternoon at Library club room. Mrs. John J. Eldred read a paper on "Joseph Pulitzer, the noted Editor philanthropist."

The Rev. Farris a Baptist missionary who recently returned to this country from Nigeria, Africa, in his talk here Tuesday night to the members of the Baptist Friendly Bible class, told of conditions and doings in Africa. He opened his talk with the phrase "The Italians can never win the war with Ethiopia. The Ethiopians could win without a battle." He explained that the conditions as to climate, food, water, health and other things were against any white race that part of Africa. He explained that midday temperature there reaches 150 degrees, sometimes higher. As a protection from the extreme heat the missionaries wear woolen clothing and woolen socks the year round. The temperatures usually drop to about 85 degrees at night. Besides teaching the Bible Rev. Farris serves the natives as dentist, physician and surgeon. He showed many pictures of the natives and their customs.

A. L. Huett of New Berlin was among callers in the local community yesterday.

TEACHER FREEZES LEGS ENROUTE TO SCHOOL THRU COLD

Miss Anna Mae Reid, teacher of the Pleasant school four miles west of Lenoire, was in an improved condition last night after having frozen both legs yesterday morning in an attempt to walk the 11 miles from her home to the rural school house.

Attempting to start her car and finding the motor stalled, she decided to walk the distance to the school. Enroute to the school she stopped to get warm at a neighboring farm house and realized that the bitter cold had frozen both legs.

A doctor was called, and Miss Reid was moved to the home of Mrs. Ed Leach.

FREEZES HANDS

Emmett Shannon is a patient at Our Saviour's hospital suffering from frozen hands, the result of the sub-zero weather. His condition is reported to be satisfactory.

Funeral Services For Archie Hester Held At Glasgow

Rites For Fire Victim Are Largely Attended: Other News Notes

Glasgow, Jan. 23.—Funeral services, largely attended in spite of the sub-zero weather, were held at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Archie Hester, who succumbed early Monday morning from serious burns received Sunday evening while he was pouring fuel oil from a can onto a stove fire in his home. The services were conducted by Rev. R. L. Schwab of Winchester. A choir composed of Dr. and Mrs. Webster, Miss Belby Leach and Ralph Jones with Miss Ethel McClure at the piano sang "Rock of Ages," "In the Garden," and "The Old Rugged Cross."

The many beautiful floral offerings were cared for by the Mesdames Lee Fletcher, Jos. Sanderson and Elda Young and Misses Helen Clanton, Charlotte Northrop and Juanita Jackson. Casket bearers were fellow members of the local Pahuta Tribe, No. 368 of the Improved Order of Red Men, namely: Edward Cumby, George Hayes, Dale Blair and William Howard and Randall Killebrew. Interment was made in the family lot in the Glasgow cemetery.

Scott IERC Survey Issued On Thursday Shows 354 On Relief

Figures Show Half Are Eligible For WPA Projects: Winchester News

Winchester, Jan. 23.—According to an announcement made this evening by Scott County Relief Administrator, Guy R. Coddling, the survey of the Scott County relief case load as of January 18th, was completed today. The survey shows that of the 354 cases now on relief, there are 177 that have been certified to the Works Progress Administration but have not been assigned to WPA projects, 130 of which cannot be assigned because of old age or physical incapacity and 45 cases because they were not on the relief rolls between May 1, 1935 and November 1, 1935. There are two cases which cannot be certified for other reasons.

The survey also shows that there are 7 cases which are on WPA but are getting supplementary help because of the particular circumstances of their families. Included in the 177 cases which have been certified for WPA there are 54 cases who have not worked out their first semi-monthly work period. However these 54 cases will be closed by the relief office the 1st of February.

Republicans Of Cook Split: Group To Support Brooks

28 Committee Men Pledge For Chicagoan For Governor

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(P)—Supporters of Wayland Brooks, Chicago candidate for the Republican nomination as governor, staged a "coup d'etat" at a meeting of the Cook county Republican committee tonight to strengthen his candidacy.

They introduced and had passed a surprise resolution releasing the committee men from their former decision not to endorse officially any candidate unless he had the support of 80 per cent of the voting strength of the committee.

Then, being free agents, 28 of the 61 committee men adjourned to another room in a (La Salle) loop hotel and pledged their support to Brooks. Their combined voting strength was 165,338, more than a majority of the 386,127 Republican votes cast in Cook county in the 1934 primary.

The Harding-Moore-Weber committee who participated in the boom for Brooks claimed they had the support of a "substantial majority" of downstate committee men.

After the excitement had died down, Brooks issued the following statement: "I am not obligated nor committed to any group or faction. I am pledged to serve all of the people of this state faithfully and impartially."

"I am a candidate for governor and for no other office. My campaign already is in full swing and with the support that I already have from a majority of the Republican committee men from Cook county and downstate I will do my utmost to harmonize and unite the Republican party."

Medieval Pomp Proclaims Heir to England's Throne King

Traditional ceremonies handed down through a thousand years attend the succession of England's Prince of Wales to the throne. The Duke of Norfolk, earl marshal of Great Britain, attended by the Garter King of Arms, the Norry King of Arms, the York Herald, Somerset Herald and Fursuivants with Rouge Dragon, Rouge Croix and Blue Mantle, all dressed in medieval uniforms, were scheduled to assemble on the balcony of Friary Court in St. James Palace to proclaim Edward VIII king. The above picture, the only one known showing the reading of a royal proclamation, was taken in Friary Court on the occasion of the signing of the armistice in 1918.

Teacher Frozen Trying To Walk From Stalled Car

Narrowly Escapes Death In Wednesday Cold; Ashland News

Ashland, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Walter McDonald, 50, of Petersburg, teacher of the Newmanville school, 10 miles north of Ashland, narrowly escaped death by freezing Wednesday. Her husband was taking her to school when his car became stalled in a snowdrift two miles from the school. She started to walk and having fallen the second time, was picked up by a WPA worker of the community.

She was taken to the home of Sam Monroe, in Newmanville, in an unconscious condition, and both hands, feet and throat were frozen. Also suffering considerably, she was said to be recovering. A number of Ashland school children suffered frozen ears yesterday; L. D. Lewis, rural letter carrier, suffered frozen ears when he attempted to get his car out of a snowdrift near the home of Walker Thornberry, north of Ashland. Both he and H. L. Lewis, another rural letter carrier of Ashland, had to abandon their attempts to deliver the mail. Numerous coal trucks were reported stalled on country roads, most of which were blocked by drifts. Unofficial report of 23 degrees below zero were given in Ashland Thursday.

News Notes
The following students of the Ashland Community High school held a perfect attendance record for the first semester: John D. Atkins, Walter Dorsett, Bob Agnelli, Ella Mae Evans, Raymond Allen, Rosemary Freitag, Lester Blakeman, Albert Haer, Russell Blakeman, LeRoy Hayes, Anna Mae Bryant, Lucille Hayes, Sidney Campbell, Lucy Hinds, Donald Devlin, Russell Hinds, Elliott Donavan, Stuart Hinds, Elliott Johnson, Mary Shirliff, Carroll Lewis, Florence Smith, Juanita Moore, Lola Tammahill, Glen Quinley, Jean Wankel, Mary Louise Reiser, Marjorie Wankel, Evelyn Rodgers, Reta Wankel, Walter Savage, Herschel Williamson, Louise Winner.

A number of Ashland people were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burns in Virginia Tuesday night when they entertained members of a bridge club at six o'clock dinner followed by three tables of bridge. High score factors were won by Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Voetsmier. Other Ashland guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald.

The Freshman and Sophomore classes of Ashland High school will present one act plays during the second semester. Miss Genevieve Hayes will coach the Freshman play and the Sophomores will be directed by Miss Helen Graff. A number of well known plays are under consideration.

The Ashland High School Invitational Tournament was postponed on account of the drifted roads and intense cold, and four games were played on Thursday night. A number of social events were also cancelled for the same reasons.

James Albert Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen who recently moved to Ashland from Wellston, Oklahoma, has entered the Ashland High school as a sophomore. He had been a student of the Wellston Consolidated High school. Miss Temmy Savage, also a sophomore, has re-entered the High school, after spending the first semester at the New Crier Township High school at Winnetka, Ill.

Betty Allen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Allen who has been ill from pneumonia, is improving at her home.

W. C. Stribling returned Wednesday night from a business trip in central Missouri.

ALSEY RESIDENT IS INJURED IN ICE ACCIDENT

Alsey, Jan. 23.—Miss Treva Daniels suffered a painful injury Wednesday evening when she slipped and fell on the ice at the home of Cort McLaughlin. She cut a severe gash in her knee which necessitated four stitches being taken.

The south bound C. B. & Q. passenger trains were several hours late Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning due to the severe cold spell here and farther north.

The thermometer down town registered fourteen degrees below zero at five p. m. Wednesday and was reported in different parts of town to register all the way from fourteen to eighteen degrees below zero later in the evening. Schools were opened here this morning despite the sub-zero readings.

A large number of friends and relatives from Alsey attended the funeral services for Archie Hester at Glasgow Wednesday afternoon.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL
Member of the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will attend funeral services for Mrs. Frank Sullivan Saturday morning. Those who attend will meet at the Legion Home at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning and proceed to the rites from there.

Funeral Services For J. F. Koester To Be Saturday

Native Of Morgan County Dies In Cass; Was Father Of Local Resident

Funeral services for John F. Koester, who died Monday near Beardstown, will be held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Methodist church in Beardstown. He was born in Morgan county 85 years ago, but has not been a resident here for many years.

Mr. Koester, widely known Cass farmer, died at 3 p. m. Monday in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Shelton Thornton near Beardstown.

The decedent, the son of John P. and Henrietta Tholen-Koester, was 85 years of age last December 6th. He was born in Morgan county, Dec. 6, 1850, on the Dunlap farm, and was united in marriage in March of 1876 to Miss Augusta Mann.

He followed the profession of farming all of his life, for many years near Bluff Springs and for 25 years on a farm south of this city. He retired two years ago.

In 1862 his father died leaving him and his mother to rear seven small children. He grew to manhood on a farm near Beardstown and early united with the German M. E. church.

His wife died in November of 1898. Surviving are one son, John, Jr., of Browning, and five daughters: Mrs. Anna H. Werries of Jacksonville, Mrs. Nellie Tucker, Mrs. Mary Thornton, all of near here, Miss Nora Koester, Browning, and Miss Pauline Koester of this city. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. August Pfenner of this city, a brother, William, in Oregon, a half sister, Mrs. Emma Pehler of Sterling, Kansas, and a half-brother, Fred Menckel of this city. He is also survived by twelve grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Two daughters and a son died in infancy.

Court St. Joan de Arco, No. 522, Catholic Daughters of America held its first card party and luncheon of the 1936 season, Tuesday evening in Knights of Columbus Hall. The attendance was fairly large. The honors for bridge were awarded to Mrs. William Carmody and H. Rowe, for pin-ochle to Mrs. Mary Smith and A. J. Linn and for euchre to Miss Mary Osterman and Francis Geers.

Fred Smith, Jr., of Camp Rainey, CCC is a pneumonia patient in Veterans' hospital, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

David Garret of this city entered the Veterans' hospital at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Monday for treatment. Mrs. Joel Smith who left here two months ago for Roseville, Mich., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lulu King is very critically ill having suffered two paralysis strokes Sunday.

Mrs. George Geers will be hostess to her bridge club Friday evening.

Mercury Drops To 17 Degrees Below Zero; Other News From Carrollton

Carrollton, Ill., Jan. 23.—Carrollton has again experienced more cold weather this week. Before 10 o'clock Wednesday a m. a strong northwest gale was whipping over here at a rate estimated at from 35 to 40 miles per hour and the mercury was tumbling. By noon thermometers were showing from one above to three below and at 4 p. m. it had reached five below and was dropping rapidly. At 7 p. m. it was 11 below and by midnight 17. At dawn Thursday 17 below, and up to noon thermometers were showing from zero to six below, although the sun was shining brightly.

News Notes
The L. M. I. club met Monday afternoon at Library club room. Mrs. John J. Eldred read a paper on "Joseph Pulitzer, the noted Editor philanthropist."

The Rev. Farris a Baptist missionary who recently returned to this country from Nigeria, Africa, in his talk here Tuesday night to the members of the Baptist Friendly Bible class, told of conditions and doings in Africa. He opened his talk with the phrase "The Italians can never win the war with Ethiopia. The Ethiopians could win without a battle." He explained that all the conditions as to climate, food, water, health and other things were against any white race in that part of Africa. He explained that midday temperature there reaches 150 degrees, sometimes higher. As a protection from the extreme heat the missionaries wear woolen clothing and woolen socks the year round. The temperatures usually drop to about 85 degrees at night. Besides teaching the Bible Rev. Farris serves the natives as dentist, physician and surgeon. He showed many pictures of the natives and their customs.

A. L. Huett of New Berlin was among callers in the local community yesterday.

Official Reading Here Last Night Shows Rise Of Eleven Degrees

After registering a record low of 17 degrees below zero here early Thursday morning the mercury began a slow rise and last night at six o'clock the official reading showed temperature eleven degrees higher than at the same time 24 hours previously. Wednesday night at six o'clock the official temperature was 16 degrees below zero.

Dr. P. P. Norbury said Thursday that slowly rising temperatures were forecast, but the change to warmer weather would probably be slow. The sub-zero temperatures continued yesterday, and local residents continued to pile the coal into their furnaces to fight off the cold which invaded every nook and corner of their homes and business houses.

Taxis were in demand yesterday as residents found their cars would not start and were faced with the necessity of walking to work through cold that would freeze ears, hands and feet in a moment. However, travelers who did get their cars going found little difficulty in getting through the streets and roads. Buses were running as usual, and the only report of blocked highways came from the vicinity of Peoria Wednesday night.

Some local residents found water pipes frozen yesterday and had to thaw them out. Many remained up until a late hour, firing to prevent pipes from freezing. Interest in the weather conditions was citywide. The Norbury weather station received 188 telephone calls Wednesday and many more Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wilson of the Point neighborhood were callers in Jacksonville yesterday.

FREEZES HANDS
Emmett Shannon is a patient at Our Saviour's hospital suffering from frozen hands, the result of the sub-zero weather. His condition is reported to be satisfactory.
